

Henry Aldrich Campaigns For President At Lyric

Pandemonium reigns at the Lyric theatre where Henry Aldrich is giving out with the impossible and campaigning for office in "Henry Aldrich for President" featured in "Hidden Valley Outlaws" with Wild Bill Elliott and Gabby Hayes.

Opening Tuesday at the Ohio will be "Swing Fever" with Kay Kyser and his band. Blonde Marilyn Maxwell, who portrayed Wallace Beery's daughter in "Salute to the Marines," holds the feminine lead. Closing Monday night is "Uncertain Glory" with Errol Flynn.

Now at the Quilna are "Nine Girls" and "Hey, Rookie." Causing a riot at the Sigma is "Ship Off the Old Block," starring Donald O'Connor with Peggy Ryan and Ann Blyth. Sharing the billing is "Tunisian Victory."

Great "Madame Curie" the title role in "Madame Curie" at the State with "Week End Page." "Sins of Bali" and "She Devil Island" are current at the Majestic.

Lima Drive-In fans are now visiting "The Iron Major."

OHIO Kay Kyser, one of radio's most outstanding personalities, adds another feather to his comedy cap when his performance as the simple minded musician in "Swing Fever" who opens Tuesday at the Ohio theatre.

Kay is cast as a composer who possesses a hereditary evil eye, and the film deals with his adventures when he journeys to New York to publish a symphony. He becomes involved with a group of fight promoters and winds up leading a swing band. Marilyn Maxwell has the feminine lead with William Gargan. Nat Pendleton, Curt Bois and Maxie Rosenbloom in the supporting cast. Lena Horne appears in the film.

Closing Monday night is "Uncertain Glory" with Errol Flynn.

QUILNA During the filming of "Hey, Rookie," soldier musical now playing at the Quilna theatre, five hundred soldiers spent their recreation hour at Fort MacArthur doing double duty—they got into the movies and at the same time enjoyed top entertainment.

Members of the cast of "Hey, Rookie," which was originally produced as a stage show by the Yard Bird of Fort MacArthur, weren't working before the cameras that day. They were there entertaining the soldiers during the recreation period. Ann Miller danced music was by Hal McIntire and his band, and comedy skits were provided by Joe Pesser and Jimmy Little, ace funsters of stage and radio.

The soldiers cheered and applauded. And all the time cameramen were shooting audience reaction shots for use in the picture.

On-billed at the theatre is "Nine Girls."

LYRIC Henry Aldrich, son of the Aldrich family and radio's famous bad boy, is a little scatterbrained, a little wistful, but alto-

HIT BY AUTO Charles Landwehr, 50, of Cleveland suffered a fracture leg early Sunday when he was struck by an automobile while he was crossing S Main-st in the 600-block. The driver of the car, William Emerson, 32 of 662 1-2 S Elizabeth-st, said he failed to see Landwehr in time to stop according to the police report. The injured man was taken to St Rita's in a Siferd and Son ambulance.

Munsel To Be Starred In 3 Cleveland Productions

Patrice Munsel, youngest star of the Metropolitan Opera and new sensation of the musical world, who will appear on next season concert, comes of the Northwest Civic Music season will have a starring role in three productions during the Cleveland season in Public Auditorium beginning Monday.

Mrs. Munsel, daughter of a Spokane (Wash.) family, who earned her way into the select Metropolitan circle of featured singers thru the radio auditions, will be heard here on Thursday, May 14th in the role in which she made her New York debut (that is, "part" of Philine in Thomas "Mignon" in which she will be supported by a stellar cast that includes Jeanne Bourke, another of the Metropolitan stars, James Melton, Scotti McKinnon, Donald Dame, John Garney and Lucille Browning.

She then, according to Cleveland, will direct the Cleveland performance of "Mignon" as he did for Miss Munsel's Metropolitan bow. The young coloratura also will be heard in "Lutes of Hoffmann" opening night, May 1st, and in the closing night's opera "Rigoletto."

Other operas to be performed in Cleveland are "La Traviata," May 2; "The Marriage of Figaro," May 3; "Famulus," May 5th; "Luce de Lammermoor," May 5th evening and "L'airon" on the afternoon of Saturday, May 6th. Tickets may be ordered by mail from Northern Ohio Opera Association, Union Bank of Commerce, Cleveland. Prices are $1.20, $2.40, $3.60, $4.80, $6, and $7.20, including the new federal taxes.

Eighty five per cent of the world's production of nickel comes from Sudbury, Canada.
