TWO OF YEAR'S BEST FILMS NOW AT QUILNA AND OHIO FANS EXPECTED TO CROWD THEATRES FOR NEW BILLINGS

Two of the greatest films of the season are now offered in Lima theatres. They are "Song of Bernadette" at the Quilna and "The Adventures of Mark Twain" at the Ohio. Both films are of vital interest to all but with different themes, Fans are expected to crowd the theatres thruout the coming week.

Opening Sunday at the State will be "In Our Time" with Ida Lupino and Paul Henreid. Sharing the billing will be "Government Girl" with Olivia DeHavilland while "The Devil and Miss Jones" and "Timber Queen" close Saturday

Beginning Saturday midnite at the Lyric will be "King of the Sierras" and "Stranger in Town" while "Lone Star Trail" and "We're in the Legion Now" close just prior to the late Saturday billing.

Now appearing at the Majestic are "Spitfire" and "Gangway for Tomorrow.

Coming Sunday to the Lima Drive-In theatre is "A Lady Takes a Chance." Playing for the last times Saturday night is "De-Strover."

Screams and groans are reverberating at the Sigma where "The Uninvited" is now co-featured with "Moon Over Las Vegas."

By the end of June, 1944, it is estimated that the war will already have cost the U. S. five times as much as World War I.
