"Return Of The Vampire" Shows On Lyric Screen

Few actors have become so typed as to roles as Bela Lugosi, famous horror man. His ability to portray gruesome parts is well exhibited in "The Return of the Vampire" now co-billed with "Jitterbugs" at the Lyric theatre.

Providing entertainment for people of all ages is "The Adventures of Mark Twain" at the Ohio.

Academy award winner "Song of Bernadette" is now showing at the Quilna.

Weird happenings are the cause of much shrieking by audiences at the Sigma as they view "The Uninvited." Sharing the billing is "Moon Over Las Vegas." "In Our Time" and "Government Girl" are the two top films at the State film house,

The Drive-In theatre now offers "A Lady Takes a Chance."

OHIO

Donald Crisp, who directed pictures for Josse L. Lasky in 1915 and 16, and again in the early twenties, is playing his first acting role for that producer in "The Adventures of Mark Twain."

In the very first scene he played he had to tramp ankle deep thru slushy mud and wind up by being playfully kicked by a trained mule. When he came safely thru the ordeal. Crisp turned to Lasky, a sideline spectator.

"Is this." he demanded, "any way to treat an old associate? Throw him in the mud and kick

LYRIC

Bela Lugosi returns with super-horror as the Vampire . beautiful girl as his prey! The Vampire dictates what she does! How can she escape this demon of the night? A scream in every scene . . . a shiver on every spine. It's eerie . . . terrifying . . chilling . . . as the lust to live brings the Vampire to life —to kill!

That's "The Return of the Vampire," paralyzing horror film now playing at the Lyric theatre. Besides its star, Bela Lugosi, the cast includes: Frieda Inescori, Nina Foch and Miles Mander, as featured players, with Gilbert Emery, Matt Willis, Roland Varno and others in supporting roles.

"The Return of the Vampire" and produced by Sam White. Co-featured is "Jitterbugs" with Laurel and Hardy.

The first American film since the fall of France to have an additional version in French, will. be the dramatization of Franz Werfel's "The Song of Bernadette," at the Quilna theatre.

In preparation for the time when Europe will again he a market for American films, the picutre, based on the best-selling novel about the Maid of Lourdes whose faith and courage stirred all France, has been made with an additional sound track in French.

LIMA WOMAN'S BROTHER HAS BIG PART IN RAID

One of the men manning the engines on the PT hoats that dished out large helpings of "PT poison" in the Hollandia area of the South Pacific May 1 was Emil Flynn of Cleveland Heights, a brother of Mrs. C. R. Hanes, 1504 W. Wayne-st, and Mrs. John Sandy, 77212 S. Elizabeth-st.

According to a story received from an Associated Press staff writer, the "hunting was good" when the PT boats went after the Japs on this mission. The crews left barges loaded with supplies] for Jap troops hanging on the ropes after a quick but deadly thrust at the supply ships.

Net result of the raid, the writer reported, was a Japanese lugger was directed by Lew Landers PT boats had sunk six Jap troopladen harges and captured three prisoners.
