"Navy Way" Opening Is Set For Wednesday At Sigma

Robert Lowery and Jean Parker carry off the leading roles in "Navy Way" opening Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. The second feature of the program will be "Pinto Bandit." Playing for the last times Tuesday night are "The Uninvited" and "Moon Over Las Vegas," "The Imposter" is now thriling audiences at the Ohio theatre.

Winner of five academy awards, "The Song of Bernadette" is now playing at the Quilna. Two outstanding films, "In Our Time" and "Government Girl" are now sharing billing at the State. The Lyric film house now offers "Return of the Vampire" and "Jitterbugs.

Opening Wednesday at the Lima Drive-In theatre will be "First Comes Courage" while "A Lady Takes a Chance" is slated to close Tuesday night.

OHO

One look at Jean Gabin is sufficient proof that he is back in the element he likes and understands best, the type of realistic role which made him France's Number One actor and the outstanding dramatic star of the Continent.

As the title player in "The Imposter," which Gabin's friend, Julien Duvivier, produced and directed. Gabin wears a soiled French army uniform and a beard which is well over a week old. An overseas cap sits on the back of his head, and his prematurely grey hair hangs down in front. 'The Imposter" opened Tuesday

1,200 JOIN WALKOUT AT TIMKEN PLANT

CANTON, O., May 9---(AP)---The Timken Roller Bearing Co.'s Gambrinus steel mill was shut down today by a walkout of 1,200 workers. A CIO United Steelworkers official reported labor leaders were "anxious to get this thing settled because the men are getting their temperatures up, and we're afraid the stoppage might spread to the Canten mill and bearing factory." The official said the stoppage was in protest over promotion of helpers to inspectors. The walkout started last Wednesday when
