

Amos 'n' Andy Borrow Uniform And Trouble

A masquerade ball is all that's needed to complicate matters for Amos 'n' Andy, on their broadcast of Friday, at 10 p. m. EWT, over WFAA. When the problem of what to wear to the event arises, the boys discover that a policeman who is a tenant of the Kingfish's has conveniently left town, and his uniform is available. The officer returns unexpectedly, however, in the midst of the festivities, and goes looking for the culprits. What he finds is more than he bargained for—and what listeners will find is a half-hour of rib-tickling fun!

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F. B. I. and a sports enthusiast of many years, will be guest on Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel" from the Capital Friday (WEAF 10:30 p. m., EWT).

Hoover will tell how important a part athletics play in not only the physical structure of his organization, but in keeping morale at high.

Mother's Day and the attendant problem of finding a gift for mom which she doesn't already have grips The Parker Family in "Mother's Day," amusing episode to be heard Friday, at 8:15 p. m. EWT, over WJZ. War-imposed scarcity of non-essentials hampers the search, too.

Merchant marines will be paid double tribute during the "Double or Nothing" program Friday, 9:30 p. m., EWT over WOR, when the entire quiz show personnel moves to Sheepshead Bay to give the merchant marine a chance as contestants in the show. The double purpose of the move is to salute

HOLD SPECIAL MAY SERVICES AT ST. GERARD

Graduation Exercises Are Scheduled For June 2

By MARGARET HUNT

The annual May Procession and crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary will take place in St. Gerard church at 7:30 Sunday evening. All the students will take a part in the solemn procession and singing, of the hymns of praise to the Blessed Mother, Dorothy Jean Clifford was selected for the honor of crowning the Blessed Mother with Josephine Gallagher, Betty Huysman, Mary Ann Clifford, Virginia Graham, Abigail Gast and Margaret Hunt as attendants.

The date of the senior graduation has been set for Friday evening June 2. It will be held in St. Gerard church.

The pupils of the grade school received their fifth six-week report cards during the past week. Honors were given to Ruth Hoeger, Mary Esther Lyons, James Fitzgerald, Virgil Thines and Shirley Tierney from grade eight; Rita Houseworth, Anita Giesner, Rosemary Greeley and Angele Guidera from the seventh grade.

The boys and girls in the third and fourth grade room are having fun celebrating music week. Besides learning some new songs, they are illustrating them.

The Good Reading Club of St. Gerard held their fourth meeting of the school year last Thursday. Richard Flynn was acting chairman and Geraldine Eilerman was secretary. During the meeting book reports were given by Sheila Finn of grade one who reported on "Nick and Dick," written by Arthur Gates, Franklin Baker, and Celeste Peardon, Tom Backus, a second grader told a story from Elson's Basic Reader, Therese Rubrig of the third grade gave a report on "My Book to Help America," by Munro Leaf. From the fourth grade Audrey Francis told the story of the "Mystery of the Little Red Schoolhouse" by Helen Fuller Olson. Nancy French represented grade five, with a report on the "Song Dog" by Van Hoyt Floyd Hunt, a sixth grader reviewed "His First and Last Appearance," by Father Finn S. J. James Schenk, representing the seventh grade, reported on "In Xavier Landa" written by Father Boyton, and on behalf of the eighth grade, Thomas Pasley reported on "Top Kick" by Helen Watson.

The meeting was attended by the principal, Sister Mary Austin, and by the Reverend James Dugan, C. S. R. who awarded 117 gold ribbons and 31 silver ribbons to those who merited them.

These more students from St. Gerard are in the armed forces pending the passage of their physical exams. They are Edmund Henders and George Kilban, Navy and Robert Fitzgerald, Army.

An estimated 1,200,000 boys and girls under 18 will work on U. S. farms in 1944.

LIBRARY GROUP FORMED

ADA, May 12 At a meeting the Ada district library board authorized the forming of the Friends of the Public Library association. Mrs. George Stambaugh, president of the Ada board, named Mrs. John P. Stambaugh, Dana E. Welsh and B. F. Snyder as a committee. Purpose of the association is to include in its membership those who have shown an active interest in the development of the Ada library.

SAVE PAPER

NABISCO GRAHAMS

THE SWEET WARTIME ENERGY FOOD

Be sure there's plenty of "energy" food in the diet of that young "war worker" of yours who is collecting more waste paper than any youngster in the block. Give her plenty of the crunchy, deliciously sweet Nabisco Graham Crackers she loves. They digest quickly, are completely wholesome. Make Nabisco Graham Crackers a regular part of your wartime diet. No points needed!
