Thief Ransacks

Apartment, Gets $55

There was no money left to pay the rent and buy groceries for Apt. 1, 431 Hawthorne ct. after a thief ransacked the place and stole $55, Friday, police said today.

The part in trying to save our freedom and, in the end, to make freedom and, in the end, to make the end, to make the end, to make this world a better place. They are defined in which war cannot come again to hurt the human race.

Some fathers are carrying on their work in this country, and others are fighting abroad. The government was sorry to send any fathers to the battlefield, but there came a time when it was important for some of them to go in the place and stole $55. into service.
