Joan Davis Appears In First Starring Picture At Lyric RED RYDER—A CONTRED'S STOLEN CATTLE LEADS TO A CANE WHERE OUTLAND SUMS ARE LEIGLED ON HIM

Unequalled and unsurpassed in her type of comedy is the unquenchable Joan Davis now playing in her first starring picture, "Beautiful But Broke" at the Lyric. Second attraction of the program is "Pride of the Plains" with the government film "Memphis Belle" as an added drawing card.

A musical extravaganza with a psychological twist is "Lady in the Dark" current at the Ohio.

Walter Brennan turns in another great performance in another equine show. This time it's "Home in Indiana" at the Quilna. Coming into his own is comedian Jack Carson who has his first stai billing in "Make Your Own Bed" at the Sigma with "Voice in the Wind" Crowded conditions in war-time Washington are aptly dealt with in "Standing Room Only" now cofeatured with "Swing Fever" at

The slightly rugged Humphrey Bogart gives the enemy the count in "Sahara" at the Lima Drive-In.

LYRIC "Beautiful But Broke" is now playing at the Lyric theatre. Get hep! It's in the laugh-groove Singsational stars . . . 7 new song hits . . . America's funniest comedienne, screwball Joan Davis in a mad musical. It's jumpin' and Jivin' with joy. You'll be swingin out the laughs at the merriest-go-round of romance and rhythms you ever saw!

Besdes Joan Davis, the most ferocious she-wolf you ever howled at, the cast includes Jane Frazee, sweeter than ever in the love-groove; Judy Clark, sparkin' round with jive; Bob Haymes, congster of radio and screen, John Hubbard swingin' out the laughs; and Willie, West and McGinty, famous vaudeville funsters.

Completing the program is Pride of the Plains with the government film, "Memphis Belle," also showing.
