

LIVELY COMBINATIONS ATTRACT LIMA MOVIE FANS

MYSTERY, INTRIGUE PREVAIL AT LOCAL SHOW HOUSES

Weird mysteries and ghosts cavort on local theatre screens this week-end as psychology again monopolizes the screens. Music too has its hey-day at the second run film houses.

For the second week in a row the Ohio offers a psychological film the current entitled "Gaslight." The picture co-stars Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer.

Arthur Lake, the "Dagwood" of the Bumstead series, shivers in his boots in the "Ghost That Walks Alone" at the Quilna. The second feature offers Ann Miller in "Jam Session."

A collection of stars to make any director's heart squirm in envy are appearing in "And the Angels Sing" at the Sigma. The film stars are Dorothy Lamour, Fred MacMurray, and Betty Hutton. Sharing the program is "Gildersleeve's Ghost."

Coming Sunday to the State theatre are "The Uninvited" and "The Navy Way" while "Song of Russia" and "Chip Off the Old Block" close Saturday night.

Currently packing them in at the Majestic are "Phantom of the Opera" and "Broadway Limited." The double feature program at the Lima Drive-In has "Undercover Man" and "Saludos Amigos."

London's postoffice directory contains many odd and amusing names, as Champagne, Butter, Cheese, Mutton, Fullilove.

Cinderella Girl Is Sleuth On "Ellery Queen" Mystery

Gloria Halliday, 19-year-old contralto, who is one of the three finalists in the "Hour of Charm's" search for America's Singing Cinderella, will be a guest armchair detective on "The Adventures of Ellery Queen" Saturday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT).

The mystery Miss Halliday will try to solve is called "The Case of the Corpse in Lower 5." In it Queen encounters a series of clues on a mysterious transcontinental train ride and before the journey is over he finds murder, loses something that irrefutable logic says could not be lost, and finally, of course, figures out the whole thing.

Allan Nevins, twice Pulitzer Prize winner, devotes the next chapter of "American Story" Saturday, to a discussion of the opening of the western rivers as part of the development of this nation (WEAF, 7 p. m., EWT). Titled "Western Waters and Westward"

Farers," this episode deals with the steamboat and its influence on the opening of the Ohio, Mississippi and their tributary rivers.

Two more heavily-laden duffel bags, filled with cigars for service men in hospitals, will go out on Bob Hawk's "Thanks to the Yanks" quiz, on Saturday at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WABC. The hospitals are the U. S. Army's Stark General hospital, in Charleston, S. C., and the McCloskey general hospital, at Temple, Fla. Contestants in the quiz will be given the opportunity to send one, two or three thousand cigars to service men, for answering Hawk's contest questions.

Indicating his imminent return from far off Iran, where his tense action, suspense, thrill, mystery and a screwball detective that made "Whistling in the Dark" such a riot of feverish fun is functioning again, this time in "Whistling in Dixie."

This new offering, opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre, presents the same character—that of "The Fox," radio detective, and two members of the cast of "Whistling in the Dark." In "Whistling in Dixie," Skelton, as Wally Benton, is awarded a badge and a commission as an honorary police commissioner for his part in breaking up a notorious gangster ring. His reputation as a real-life, as well as a radio detective, reaches Georgia and he is soon enticed South to lend his hilarious aid in the solution of another baffling mystery.

Sharing the billing will be "Trail of Terror," "Shooting High" and "The Moon Is Down" close just prior to the midnight opening.

RED SKELTON GOES SOUTH FOR FILM "WHISTLING IN DIXIE"

MAN SHORTAGE—Red Skelton still can't believe that he's the fellow surrounded by three lovelies. The girls, Dian Lewis, Celia Travers and Ann Rutherford are featured with Red in his new starring picture, "Whistling in Dixie," opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre.

ARTHUR IS UPSET—Blonde trouble in the form of glamorous Janis Carter (left) is just one of the things which upset Arthur Lake on his movie honeymoon with gorgeous Lynn Roberts (right) in that hilarious, humor comedy, "The Ghost That Walks Alone," now convulsing the customers at the Quilna theatre. Ghosts walk, dead men talk, cops stalk, girls balk and Arthur Lake as a radio sound effects man yells murder and really means it. It's a howl of a history-making whodunit which is giving audiences a laugh-delight with their chills of fright. It was directed by Lew Landers.

TAFT DESCRIBES NEW DEAL PARTY

CHICAGO, June 24 (AP)—Four "distinct principles" distinguish the "New Deal party" from the Republican party, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio asserted last night.

He told the Executives club they are "federalization of all power, disregard for individual freedom, delegation of all legislative power to executive bureaus, and solving all problems by federal spending." He added that Americans "are submitting ourselves voluntarily to Fascist controls."

Taft said the totalitarian tendency to rely upon the federal government "has permeated all the people of the United States, even those who say they are against it."

He said the demand for government aid was noticeable in local post-war planning, adding that "every city in the country is making vast plans for public works and they all seem to think the federal government is going to finance them."

Asserting that such spending was stopped long before the war, he said he had "no idea" why we believed it would be resumed.

He continued in the same vein, saying agriculture is always asking congress for federal funds, and that small business wants a law passed for loans to small business.

Taft said he advocated state administered and financed social welfare and public housing programs "with a little help" from the federal government.

He said all the states were operating on a surplus basis, but that the federal government was running at a deficit of $60,000,000,000 yearly.

The Ohio congressman said he had heard a "great deal" of talk about a shortage of working capital, but he was convinced that if the government would see that industry receives cash for assets frozen by the war effort, there would be enough cash for private capital to proceed.

America's post war effort, he said, is full employment thru private enterprise.

INVASION WEAPONS The 155mm Gun

AP Features The 155 mm gun, dubbed "Long Tom" by troops, combines great fire power with a high degree of mobility. A heavy field gun, it can also serve as a coast defense weapon and has seen extensive service in Africa, Italy and the South Pacific.

Firing a 95-pound demolition or chemical projectile about 15 miles at a rate of four rounds per minute, the gun weighs about 15 tons, and is self-propelled or tractor-drawn.

As a self-propelled weapon it is mounted on an armored full-track vehicle, has the running characteristics of a medium tank and requires a ten-man crew. As a tractor-drawn weapon, it has a crew of 15.
