Ann Corio Stars In Film Hit Showing At The Lyric

Ann Corio, erstwhile "loveliest lady of burlesque" not only sings but also dances at the head of a bevy of scantily clad beauties in her latest hit "The Sultan's Daughter" now playing at the Lyric theatre. Sharing the billing is "Detective Kitty O'Day."

"The Story of Dr. Wassell" featuring Gary Cooper in the title role, is the story of a great man's great loves. It is the story of one of the Navy's most amazing exploits as of adventure. Breaking into the headlines of every newspaper several years ago was the amazing jail break of Roger Touhy and his gang from the Statesville prison in Joliet, Ill. You: can see this break reenacted on the screen of the Quilna theatre

this man travels thru 1,500 miles

where "Roger Touhy, Gangster" is co-featured with "Jamboree." Those in the show business know what it is to receive applause from an audience of soldiers, sailors, or Marines but they should be applauded in a different manner. "Follow the Boys" now playing at the Sigma theatre depicts the marvelous work these people do in entertaining our men in service wherever they may be. Showing with it is "Twilight On the Prairie." Full of fun and laughs for everyone is "See Here, Private Hargrove," current movie at the State theatre. Featured with it is "Moon Over Las Vegas."

LYRIC

With Ann Corio in the starring role, and an exceptional cast of supporting players, "The Sultan's Daughter," a comedy-drama of colorful events centering about the seraglios of the Middle East, is playing an engagement at the Lyric theatre. The picture registered solidly as simon-pure entertainment, picturesquely presented and filled with interludes of hilarious comedy.
