DEANNA DURBIN IS CAST IN HEAVY DRAMA AT THE OHIO

Movies based on books are holding their own this week on the screens of the local show houses. Mixed with tense, exciting drama, comedy, and romance, we will no doubt see the more human side of life rather than was which has previously been held in the limelight of the public's attention.

Deanna Durbin plays the most exciting and diamatic role of her *creen career in "Christmas Holiday" in which she is co-starred with Gene Kelley at the Ohio the-

Paul Iukas gives an excellent performance in "Address Unknown" now playing at the Quilna theatre. This movie may again bling him an Academy Award Sharing the billing is "Louisiana Hay Ride"

Olsen and Johnson have kept audiences rolling in the aisles at theatres all over the United States. Now they have come to the Sigma theatre in their newest hit of the season "Ghost Catchers" which is co-featured with "Invisible Man's Revenge.

Coming to the State theatre Sunday is "Lady In the Dark" filmed in technicolor and starring Ginger Rogers This movie probably has the most spectacular array of costumes and scenery of any movie ever filmed. Showing with it will be "Falcon Out West"

"Zenobia" is taking its place; among the other first class comedies Delightful entertainment is provided thruout the whole picture opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre with "Di Broad-

Backgrounds Of American Soldiers Basis Of Drama

Two American sergeants, one of Irish and one of Chinese descent, are today working side by side at an airport for B-29's in western China. For its initial broadcast, Saturday (WEAF, at 7 p m.) "They Cail Me Jue" tells of their backgrounds, dramatizing contributions of the Irish and Chinese to America. Using the fictional sergeants O'Farrell's grandfather left Ireland and came to this country to help build a better world for himself and his
