

"Brother Rat" Plays Return Engagement At Sigma

One of the biggest hits of a few seasons back is coming to the Sigma theatre Wednesday under the title "Brother Rat" starring Ronald Reagan and Jane Wyman. You'll not want to miss seeing this movie that strikes a new high in hilarity.

Deanna Durbin sings a torch song for the first time in her screen career in "Christmas Holiday," now playing at the Ohio theatre. As in the past, Miss Durbin will thrill you again with her singing.

"Address Unknown" currently showing at the Quilna theatre, will give the person who is looking for entertainment, something else—something timely and thought-provoking—which only brings a realization that retribution has come to some Nazis and will come to more.

An interesting fact about the movie "Lady in the Dark" playing at the State theatre is of the future styles of women's clothes which are shown throughout the picture. Sharing the billing is "Falcon Out West."

Tallulah Bankhead gives the most dramatic portrayal of her whole screen career in "Lifeboat" playing at the Lyric theatre. Co-featured is "Thundering Gun Slinger" with Larry Crabbe.

Acclaimed the most suspenseful drama ever made, the entire action taking place in a lifeboat whose passengers are survivors of a U-boat torpedoing—and the commander of the enemy submarine—Alfred Hitchcock's production of "Lifeboat," by John Steinbeck, is now playing at the Lyric theatre.

"Lifeboat" was made with the cooperation of the U. S. Navy and Merchant Marine; the latter loaned the studio a 26-foot steel lifeboat which could not be bought at any price.

The film stars Tallulah Bankhead with featured players William Bendix, Walter Slezak, Mary Anderson, John Hodiak, Henry Hull, Heather Angel, Hume Cronyn and Canada Lee.

Kenneth Macgowan was the producer. Jo Swerling wrote the screen play for the production. Co-featured is "Thundering Gun Slinger."

Without the aid of a crystal ball, William Cameron Menzies can give a detailed preview of a movie before an actor is cast or a foot of film goes thru the cameras. Each scene can be viewed exactly as it will later appear on the screen in a series of several hundred drawings which Menzies always prepares as his "production design" for the film he is to make.

Heretofore, Menzies has been production designer for other producers and directors, but his latest assignment was the triple task of designer, producer and director of "Address Unknown."

"Brother Rat," Warner Bros. gave comedy hit of a few seasons ago about life in a military school, which originally ran on Broadway for 18 months and had three successful road tours, is coming back to town Wednesday when it opens in a return engagement at the Sigma theatre.

The production stars Ronald Reagan, Jane Wyman, Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane, all of whom have had many sensational successes. A considerable portion of the picture was made on the grounds of the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., and the entire cadet corps of that famous and historic school, 700 strong, took part.

Also playing will be "I Married a Murderer."

ASSIGNS HIGH PRIORITY WASHINGTON, July 25—(UP)—The War department, faced with a possible shortage of 80,000 heavy trucks for American and Allied use, has assigned the vegetable the same priority as B-29 Superfortress in an attempt to boost production, it was revealed today.

FT. JENNINGS MAN KILLED IN FRENCH SECTOR

FT. JENNINGS, July 25—Pfc. Glenn Rayman, 30, of Ft. Jennings Route 3, was killed in action in France June 22, according to a message received by his mother, Mrs. Lucy Rayman, from the War department, she reported today.

The telegram received by the mother did not disclose any other details but assured her a letter of explanation will follow.

Born Dec. 11, 1913, in Ottoville, to John and Lucy Rayman, Pfc. Rayman entered service May 28, 1941, and went overseas Oct. 2, 1943. He landed first in Ireland and then moved to England before the invasion of France.

The father died recently. Also remaining besides Mrs. Rayman are two sisters, Mrs. Maxine Crow of Toledo and Miss Mary Catherine Rayman at home, and four brothers, John Paul, Stanley, Robert and Eugene Rayman, all at home.

Arrangements for a memorial ritual will be completed in the near future but the date has not been determined.

Yellow cornmeal or powdered orris root sprinkled into the scalp will remove excess oil and is an excellent dry shampoo.
