

You Can See The Inside Of A Cowboy Canteen At The Lyric

We've heard a lot about the Stage Door Canteen but nothing about a "Cowboy Canteen." As we all know, only service men and women are allowed inside any kind of canteen but if you really want to see what the inside of one looks like, don't miss seeing the current picture at the Lyric theatre playing under the title of "Cowboy Canteen."

Mark Twain is a name known to every one. It is not only a name, it stands for more. Mark Twain developed youth in words and presented it to the public which literally ate it up. Now you can see him on the screen of the Ohio theatre.

You'll not want to miss seeing Fred MacMurray, Barbara Stanwyck, and Edward G. Robinson in "Double Indemnity" now showing at the Sigma theatre. It is a story of an unholy love and an almost too perfect crime.

We'll take it. What? We're taking the 844 question in Phil Baker's greatest hit "Take It Or Leave It" now showing at the Quilna theatre. Sharing the billing is "She's a Soldier Too."

Ernie shadows cast by a gaslight gives even more mystery to the movie now showing at the State theatre. "Gaslight" stars Charles Boyer, Ingrid Bergman and Joseph Cotten. Also playing is "Henry Aldrich Plays Cupid."

Quilna "Take It Or Leave It" the big surprise musical featuring Phil Baker, brings to the screen one of the freshest, sweetest love stories in years, and introduces the new romantic team of Edward Ryan and Marjorie Massow in the picture now playing at the Quilna theatre.

Edward Ryan will be remembered for his brilliant portrayal of "Al," the youngest "grown-up" brother in "The Fighting Sullivans," while Marjorie Massow, a newcomer to the 20th Century-Fox lot, makes her screen debut in "Take It Or Leave It."

Red-headed and beautifully photogenic, Miss Massow bids fair to become the new idol of movie fans.

"Cowboy Canteen," the new picture now showing at the Lyric theatre has in it the heartiest gang of entertainers ever corralled in one routine, tootin', shootin' musical. . . They give out with a $1,000,000 worth of entertainment. It's filled with hard riding. . . smart songs. . . lusty gags. . . grand gals. . . and great guys. . . It's a Western jamboree of joy.

Besides the star, Charles Starrett, "Cowboy Canteen" boasts a cast of expert cowpunchers and entertainers. There are Jane Frazee, Vera Vague, Tex Ritter, Dub Taylor, Quinn (Big Boy) Williams, together with The Mills Brothers, Jimmy Wakely and his Saddle Pals, Roy Acuff, and his Smoky Mountain Boys and Girls, The Tailor Maids and Bill Hughes.
