Halleck Urges Policies of OPA WASHINGTON - Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.) tonight urged further congressional inquiry into the Office of Price Administration's, (OPA) "apparent determination to ignore congressional mandates" in administering price man Lyle H. Boren (D-Akla.) of the subcommittee on interstate and foreign commerce, investi-gating newsprint and brand names, asked for "an early meeting" to investigate reports concerning the OPA. He also asked for another subcommittee review of the War Production Board's (WPB) proposal "to force additional drastic cuts in the use of printing paper in the fourth quarter of this year," saying that it is time to "ask the services (armed forces) to justify some of their demands."

Although the OPA has been told by the comptroller general that it "must observe only commercial grades" in fixing maximum prices of processed fruits and vegetables, Halleck said, "OPA attorneys, whose association with the OPA dates back to the Henderson - Ginsburg - Galbraith regime, seem to have again taken charge of that agency and at-tempted to tie prices of the 1944 pack of canned good to government grades.

Gets Purple Heart

JUNEAU - Pvt. Lawrence Beyer, 19, Juneau farm youth, has been awarded the Purple Heart for meritorious service at an army station hospital in England where he is recovering from wounds received in France. He landed on D-day and was under continuous fire until he was wounded in the left arm July 15. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beyer,

Dells Clubs Plan Recreation Area

WISCONSIN DELLS-Post-war plans for a combined park, swimming pool, and athletic field for Wisconsin Dells were presented by the American Legion post to the Kiwanis club and leaders of other clubs and organizations last weekend. The proposed site is in Taylors Glen. Val Baggot, Legion commander, said the project was estimated to cost $75,000. The plan will be presented to the common council at its next meeting.

with a bearded face, but we may also think of him as he was during the strength of his young manhood. Thomas Carlyle dethe poet's "great shock of rough, dark hair" and "laughing, hazel eyes."

Tennyson was born on an August day in 1809, the same year which saw the birth of Abraham Lincoln. He was the son of a clergyman who preached in the county of Lincoln in east-central England. Thus in both the time and the place of his birth, he was linked to the babe across the sea who was to become an American president. When only 23 years old, Tenny-son became the author of a book. The volume contained "The Lady of Shalott" and several other poems. In the years which followed, he wrote further volumes. Per-

In these times of war, we well may read Tennyson's poem, "Locksley Hall," in which he wrote:

'For I dipt into the future, far as human eyes could see,

Saw the Vision of the world and all the wonder that would be; Saw the heavens fill with commerce, argosies of magic sails Pilots of the purple twilight dropping down with costly bales; 'Heard the heavens fill with
