

Georgie Price Guests On "Let Yourself Go" Show

Georgie Price, night club and stage comic, reveals his hidden desires and does something about getting them off his chest, when he appears as Milton Beile's guest on the merry "Let Yourself Go" session, over Station WJZ Tuesday at 10:30 p. m. Assisting Beile musically in this unusual series is Ray Block's orchestra.

Nazi saboteurs set fire to warehouses in which vital war materials are stored on the "Green Hornet".

In the story the criminals count on the fact that officials will be relaxed because America is winning the war and therefore easy marks for their arson. However Brit Reed, publisher of the "Senti-mentary," does a neat bit of sleuthing in the role of the "Green Hornet" and brings the Nazis to heel in a spectacular manner. "Flames of Wrath" is the title of the mystery drama.

Leon Feuchtwanger's book "Simone" about an heroic French girl who epitomizes the spirit of her country's patriots will be the drama on WEA-F's "Words at War" series Tuesday (9:30 p. m., EWT).

The script, dramatizing a story that goes back to 1940, is written by Edith Sommer. Simone Planchard, the little French girl surrounded by collaborators, including her uncle, Prosper Planchard, is the principal character showing the two opposing forces in France.

Stage and screen star Raymond Massey will offer his final medical portrait in "The Doctor Fights" series Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over Station WABU. The program had been dedicated to the thousands of physicians serving in war zones and on the home front and was based on actual records in Army and Naval Medical Corps files.

Big Gen. James S. Simmons, of the Surgeon General's office in Washington, and chief of the Preventive Medical Division will be guest speaker.

TWO FORMER ADA MEN NOW ARE REPORTED TO BE SAFE

(Special To The Lima News) ADA, Aug. 29.—Two former Ada servicemen who previously were reported missing are safe.

Lt. Charles Henlein, 26, of Vaughnsville, is now a prisoner of the Germans, and John Struble, Toledo, is safe in England.

Lt. Henlein, a navigator on a B-24, had completed 13 missions. He attended Ohio Northern university and resided at the J. B. Stambaugh home.

Struble, who was a member of the paratrooper division, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Struble, the elder Struble having been a former principal of Ada high school.

Entertaining Love Story Due As Feature On Sigma Screen

There's an old saying that a man can not be in two places at one time. This may be true in some cases but a man can be in another place, in a woman's heart. This story has now been filmed and can be seen on the screen of the Sigma theatre under the title "Always in My Heart."

Those funsters of screen and radio are giving a hilarious performance at the Ohio in their latest hit "In Society." Abbott and Costello famed for their comedy, are keeping the audiences on the edge of their seats as they take a ride, more famous than the ride of Paul Revere.

Even though it is pretty hard to get the kind of cigarette you want, a package of the unknown kind is better than one with poisoned tobacco. Perhaps that is a little bit far fetched but it means don't miss "Bermuda Mystery" now showing at the Quilna.

Some people who try to get revenge often go to the extent of murdering someone else. This in turn brings on a jail sentence for them or perhaps death. In the movies at the State theatre, an invisible man gets his revenge but still does not evade death. See the "Invisible Man's Revenge."

They love their ship but when the sailors dock the first thing they want is shore leave and that's what they have in the new hit at the Lyric theatre "Fleet's In" starring William Holden, Dorothy Lamour, Betty Hutton and Eddie Bracken. Sharing the billing is "Great Guns."

Avast there you moving picture landlubbers! "The Fleet's In!" Meaning, of course that the tuneful comedy has dropped anchor at the Lyric theatre, bringing with it a crew of stars who have been cited numerous times for distinguished service in making us laugh and swing to swell rhythm.

Stars of "The Fleet's In" are Dorothy Lamour, William Holden and Eddie Bracken, a combination of talent that heralds plenty of romance, laughs and melody.

Featured in the new comedy with music are such popular performers as Betty Hutton, American Number One Jitterbug; Betty Jane Rhodes, Left Frisco and Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra which features Bob Eberly and Helen O'Connell. These entertainment headlines are augmented by C. S. Daley, Gil Lamb, Barbara Britton, Jack Norton and the comedy dance team of Lorraine and Rognan.

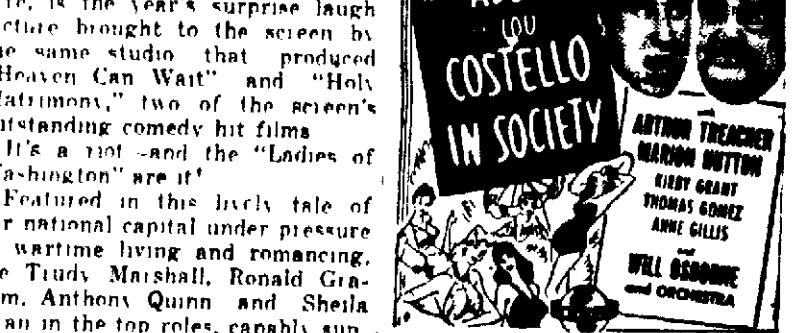

"Ladies of Washington" currently showing at the Quilna theatre, is the year's surprise laugh picture brought to the screen by the same studio that produced "Heaven Can Wait" and "Holy Matrimony," two of the recent's outstanding comedy hit films.

Featured in this lively tale of our national capital under pressure of wartime living and romancing, are Tully Marshall, Ronald Graham, Anthony Quinn and Sheila Ryan in the top roles, capably supported by a large cast of outstanding screen favorites. Louis King directed the film.
