

The Life of EISENHOWER

By Francis Travalan Miller
First Biography of America's Great General

VICTORY IN NORTH AFRICA

"Things were getting hot," as Ike called it, all along the line. The Axis was fighting desperately at great cost of live and supplies. They broke thru American artillery positions west of Faid Pass, imperiling the Allied positions at Gafsa. American forces under heavy assaults withdrew to the hills in the Tebessa region on the Algerian border. Montgomery's British Eighth Army was only 165 miles away after fighting its way across North Africa.

The battles at Kasserine Pass were being waged with terrific onslaughts from both sides. The first battle lasted two days and ended in defeat for the Americans and French, who were forced back into Algeria. It was a death struggle to take the mountain gateway to Tunisia. The Germans, spurred by their temporary victory, advanced rapidly towards Thala.

General Eisenhower was at the front witnessing the battle. Standing beside him were General Alexander, General Giraud and General Patton. They watched the American forces as they rallied a few days later with a powerful attack. Thru brilliant strategy the Germans were caught between the sheer, cliffed walls in the mountain pass—a modern Thermopylae. Waves of American bombers poured death from the skies. Panic-stricken, the Germans tried to escape the flaming tombs, but the American ground forces drove thru with devastating power. The Battle of Kasserine Pass was won (Feb. 24, 1943), and the remnants of the Germans retreated toward Gafsa. And Gafsa, with General Eisenhower witnessing the battle, was captured in terrific combat by American infantry on March 1, St. Patrick's Day.

BAN ON SALE OF AMMUNITION FOR HUNTERS ENDED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 — (UP) — The War Production Board revoked today for the remainder of the year its ban on the sale of ammunition to hunters.

The WPB also increased the quota of ammunition which may be sold to farmers and ranchers, for use against predatory animals in protecting their crops and livestock.

Thru Dec. 31, according to the new WPB ruling, farmers, ranchers and hunters may purchase 100 rounds of .22 caliber rifle cartridges; 40 or 50 rounds, depending on packaging, of center fire rifle ammunition, and 100 shotgun shells of any gauge.

Purchasers will be required to sign certificates that they are entitled to the ammunition under WPB regulations.

The WPB said that the ban on civilian use of ammunition for trap and skeet loads and shooting galleries will remain in effect.

The combined force swept forward. The total Axis prisoners of the two armies counted 12,000 as Axis forces abandoned Mahares and retreated towards Sfax on April 9. Sfax was captured the next day and on the 11th day they were 27 miles north of La Hencha while American troops stormed and swept thru Faid Pass. Kairouan was taken on April 12, and the armies swept on, capturing thousands of Axis troops, 30,000 by April 15.

Rommel was being beaten at his own game. He had only the sea behind him. He must fight to the last ditch, or attempt a German "Dunkirk" with what was left of his shattered army. In North Tunisia American troops in total darkness, captured all the Djebel Tahent, Hill 609. American troops captured Mateur, 19 miles southwest of Bizerte, after a 15-mile advance thru the German position of Jefna to the west. The Axis in Africa had come to the end of the trail. On a glorious May Day (May 7, 1943) at 4:15 in the afternoon Bizerte was captured by the U. S. Second Corps aided by the French. Tunis was captured by the British First Army after advancing 23 miles in 36 hours. United States Army forces were advancing toward the Gulf of Tunis to cut off the retreating Axis troops. The British pushed along the coast to stop the enemy from withdrawing into the hills of the Cape Bon Peninsula.

Bombers were pouring death and destruction on the fleeing armies of Rommel. His desperate attempt to escape to the sea had failed. There was but one thing left for him—to escape to Italy by air and leave his bedraggled army behind him.

May 9 was a dismal day to the "all-powerful" Axis Germans and Italians began surrendering unconditionally en masse. Six great German commanders, headed by the proud Maj.-Gen. Willibard Borowietz, surrendered to the American General Bradley of the Second Corps.

The death rattle was gurgling in the throats of the mighty Axis. A few hours later, on May 10, British forces were advancing up both sides of Cape Bon peninsula to strangle Hitler's "supermen" with a last powerful grip.

General Eisenhower, at his headquarters, issued the statement on May 12: "Organized resistance, except in isolated pockets of the enemy, has ceased. General Von Arnim, commander of the Axis forces in Tunisia, has been captured."

TOLEDO, Aug. 30 — (AP) — A youth identified by personal papers as Arthur Saari, 19, Detroit, was found on the street here early today, fatally shot in the chest.

He was dead on arrival at Mercy hospital.

A pistol was found on the ground near the victim and powder burns were on his sweater where two bullets entered his chest, police reported.

Coroner Frank G. Krefl is investigating the shooting.

For the period of 1940 thru 1943, the accidents, fires and explosions in military plants caused 97 per cent less fatalities than were sustained during the first World War, and property losses were 93 per cent less than those of the last war.

Theatre Is Background For New "North" Mystery

Mysteries turn up in the queerest places when "Mr. and Mrs. North" are around, and Wednesday at 8 p. m., over Station WEAF, a neighborhood movie theatre serves as the background as "The Norths Unravel a Murder." As shots ring out from the screen, where a tragic melodrama is showing, a man in the seat next to Pam slumps against her. By the time the murder is solved, the Norths have experienced enough thrills to fill a wild west double feature program.

Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin are featured in the title roles.

Frank Sinatra will present his first army camp airshow when he broadcasts his Wednesday program from Camp Hahn, Calif. at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WABC. As previously announced, Sinatra will have Joan Leslie as his visit.

Do you have poor digestion? YES NO

Do you feel headachy after eating? YES NO

Do you get sour or upset easily? YES NO

Do you feel tired—listless? YES NO

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 10¢ and 25¢.
