

Senator Harry S. Truman's Acceptance Speech Aired

WEAF will carry the acceptance speech of Sen. Harry S. Truman Thursday (10:30-11 p. m. EWT). The Democratic vice presidential candidate, who also will be heard on the other major networks, will speak from his birthplace, Lamar, Mo.

Notables to be present include Sens. Clark of Missouri, Ellender of Louisiana, George of Georgia, Guffey of Pennsylvania, Hatch of New Mexico, Walsh of Massachusetts, Thomas of Oklahoma, Tunnell of Delaware and Hill of Alabama.

Sen. Tom Connally of Texas will make the notification speech. This special program will cancel the Aug. 31 broadcast of "March of Time" on WEAF.

If you haven't Joan Davis thinks it's about time you did, for when comely comedienne returns to the "Village Store" with Jack Hales Thursday (WEAF, 9:30 p. m., EWT), she'll stage a Christmas party with all the trimmings.

And presents galore will be brought by Jimmy Durante, Kenny Baker, Arthur (Dagwood) Lake, Johnny Mercer and Eddie Cantor, among those who have been invited to participate.

No good neighbor is the murderer of a young bride in a "Suspense" thriller with a Central American setting, "The Black Path of Fear," which stars Brian Donlevy Thursday at 8 p. m. over Station WABC. The girl is killed just as a photographer snaps her picture, and the groom, played by Donlevy, is accused of the crime.
