The housing problem continues to plague the Rileys, in the airing of William Bendix's comedy program, "The Life of Riley," over Station WJZ at 10 p. m. Riley and his family find that they are regarded as trespassers in their own home after allowing the Larson family to share their house. Things get so bad Riley forces his realtor to find him a beach cottage... but that turns out to be slightly worse than a park bench, for sleeping purposes. Supporting Bendix are Paula Winslowe as Mrs. Riley, Sharon Douglas as Bab, Conrad Binyon as Junior and Charlie Cantor as Uncle Buckley.

Business problems confront Blondie, and Blondie shrugs them off with characteristic verve, when "Blondie Votes Her Stock," Sunday at 8 p. m. over Station WABC.

The more intricate aspects of the situation escape her, Blondie manages to cast her vote in a way that fits both her personal logic and the business logic involved. Penny Singleton as Blondie and Arthur Lake as Dagwood are the stars of this series.

Servicemen's Lima News

VOL. 1 LIMA, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 3, 1944 NO. 41

As the war continued to flow the home front with optimism last week, the "Lima News" from looked to its future with a great deal of optimistic forecasting.

Some investigation by The Lima News brought to light that the city will have during the immediate post-war era a considerable expansion in buildings, particularly residential homes.

Mayer William L. Ferguson expressed his belief that additional population would demand many more housing facilities and that Lima to hit its peak by the end of 10 years. This is more than double the number of people that were counted here in the 1940 census.

Gov. John Barker, reminded that the Ohio law requires all ballots to be marked by black pencil brought many caustic remarks from local Democrats who took advantage of the issue to pan the governor in his bid for the vice presidency.

When City Auditor George A. Burgeon disclosed that the city budget would drain the municipal coffers and Lima would find itself with a deficit of $24,000 at the end of the current year, Out- come of the issue was the proposal that additional sources of revenue must be found.

Relieving the monotony of hospital life with articles of amuse- ment and adding comfort to the same life of confinement with small rest-providing items, the AWVS Workshop continues to send endless quantities of con- solences to bed-ridden men who have been wounded or injured in battle.

Since early February, the Workshop has sent to various service-men's hospitals, 375 greeting cards, 44 paper-backed books, 35 jig saw puzzles, 70 scrap books, 2,000 tray cards, 75 candy bars, 25 pounds of candy, 100 sewing kits, 91 buddy bags, 15 lap robes, and 150 wheel chair pads.

In addition to this quantity of goods, 175 pounds of used fur have been sent to New York where it is made into jackets for men in the air corps. For use in barter in foreign countries, 75 pounds of junk jewelry has been sent to Army headquarters.

An alarming note was sounded at city council meeting last week when City Auditor George A. Burgeon disclosed that the city budget would drain the municipal coffers and Lima would find itself with a deficit of $24,000 at the end of the current year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mason, 1132 S. Union-st., received the word of his death.

Items from the counters of city stores had been disappearing. The practice had been going on for quite some time. Last week police caught up with three men, Leonard T. Schoonover, 676 N. Elizabeth-st., got thrifty. Took two bottles of wine from a local bistro. Shirts were what Ranel T. Larkins was after. He got three and got caught. Clarence Stickney, Alto, picked up some pocketbooks. Police followed suit. Result: Each got 30 days in the city bastle.

In England only a short time, Ple. Wesley D. Monts, 35, was sent into France. His wife, Mrs. Marguerite Mertz Monts, 823 W. Wayne-st., received word he had been killed, Aug. 10.

Residents of the Folkestone area tonight reported hearing a terrific explosion from some distant point, presumably on the opposite side of the channel.

It was believed the blast may have been caused by German demolition squads in the Boulogne area.

BROMFIELD'S HOME AGAIN IN ALLIED HANDS

MANSFIELD, O., Sept. 2—(AP)—After nearly four years of German occupation, the former home of Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield at Senlis, 23 miles north of Paris on the banks of the tiny Nonette river, is back in American hands.

The forces of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges recently captured the little town in the drive toward Belgium.

The Bromfield family occupied the house for 12 years preceding the outbreak of the European war. It was there the author did some of his best work.

Bromfield learned soon after the Germans occupied the territory that an enemy shell-burst badly damaged the house. Friends later informed him windows and doors of the house had been boarded.

Bromfield has the house under lease until 1950 and plans some day to return. He removed all his possessions before leaving.
