

Music Tops Bill In Lyric's "Gang's All Here" Feature

Music hath charms to soothe the aching heart, or so the saying goes and there is plenty of charm in the new movie "Gang's All Here" now playing at the Lyric theatre and starring Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda and Phil Baker. New songs, new dances and new laughs high-light this scintillating comedy.

Jeeps are all right in some cases but to have one back into the side of your home and practically ruin all the furniture and everything in the room is just about carrying things too far. This is one of the many zany things that happens in the latest comedy hit "Janie" now playing at the Ohio theatre.

Anything and everything happens in Greenwich Village or rather did happen in the roaring '20's. When six-inch cigaret holders and bobbed hair were in fashion, "Greenwich Village" was well known, so don't miss seeing the movie of the same name now playing at the Quilna theatre.

If someone were a spy, undoubtedly you would think that they would be quiet about it but in defiance of all ideas of silence on such a matter as this, a new picture by the name of "I Was a Spy" is coming Wednesday at the Sigma theatre and a story which could never be told before in words is told in pictures.

Those comedians who have been able to keep audiences on the edges of their seats and literally rolling in the aisles with laughter, have come to the State theatre where they are playing in "Gibst Catches". Yes, "Olson and Johnson" try to capture a tap dancing ghost and in the process are almost murdered.

Full of bright comedy and high-lighted with music "Greenwich Village" recreates the zany and dramatic intimacies of the Village's human cross-section, providing a realistic and nostalgic slice of one of the most colorful eras of modern times.

Its cast is staffed with a galaxy of stellar artists including Carmen Miranda, Don Ameche, William Benday, Vivian Blaine, Tony and Sally De Marco, The Revuers and a host of others.

Stated in the production are Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, Phil Baker, and the king of swing, Benny Goodman and his Orchestra. And backing them up is a brilliant galaxy of many of the screen's top favorites.

ASK FREE STATE FOR MACEDONIA

CLEVELAND, Sept. 5.—(INS)—An appeal was made today by the Macedonian political organization for a free and independent state of Macedonia, following the closing of the group's annual convention in Cleveland.

Luben Dimitroff, secretary of the organization and editor of the Indianapolis Macedonian News, asserted that in the peace treaties of 1919 the Macedonian people had never been asked to decide their political destiny and that the Balkan states had been quarreling for many years for the conquest of Macedonia.

"The Veteran Comes Back" Is Dramatized Tuesday

"The Veteran Comes Back," posing a vital American problem, will be the drama on "Words at War" Tuesday (WEAF 8:30 p. m., EST.) From the book by Willard Waller, professor of sociology at Columbia university, Scriptwriter Ben Kagan has written a thought-provoking radio play.

Aunt Lily, an unmarried antique dealer (in Judy's eyes) of 34 summers, comes to town, and her young niece promptly launches a campaign aimed at producing early nuptials, when "A Date With Judy" airs Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. EST, over Station WEAF. As usual, Judy's campaign goes somewhat astray, leading to a large order of comical confusion. Louise Erickson stars as Judy, and Dix Davis is heard as her brother, Randolph.

The funniest story that Mark Twain ever wrote was dumped into a waste paper basket and never printed.

Matvan Mueller tells all about this unusual historical fact in WJZ's broadcast of "Coronet Storyteller, Tuesday, at 8:55 p. m. EST. The tale is called "A Would Be Humorist."

Ken Closson's original radio mystery, "Murder Thru the Looking Glass," will be presented on WEAF's "Mystery Theatre" Tuesday (8 p. m., EST).
