

Francis Scott Key Honored On Anniversary Broadcast

Celebrating an historic event that has even greater significance in 1944, WJZ will open at dawn, Thursday, the 130th anniversary of the writing of the Star Spangled Banner by Francis Scott Key.

The network will go on the air at 5:30 a. m. EST, an hour and a half before its regular opening time, with a special 15-minute program which will originate at Ft. McHenry, just outside of Baltimore, Md.

"By the dawn's early light, tribute will be paid to the men who defended the fort through the British bombardment of Sept. 13 and 14, 1814, and to the man who observing the gallant stand from a boat in the Chesapeake Bay, wrote the words of our national anthem.

Joan Davis' housing problem reaches its climax when her program with Jack Haley takes to the air Thursday, 8:30 p. m., EST over WEAF.

Setting finally for the attic above the store, Joan's redecorating schemes provide an opportunity for Penny (Sharon Douglas) Cartwright to display her domestic talents for the only too-willing

SECOND POLIO SAFETY MEETING TO CASE REPORTED FEATURE WAR THEMES

MARIA STEIN, Sept. 14—The second case of infantile paralysis in America was reported Wednesday by the county health commissioner, A. J. Rawers. The victim is Ralph Reicheit, 17, the son of Mrs. Ed Reicheit, of Maria Stein.

The young man whose legs both are affected, was taken on Tuesday to Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, to receive the Kenney treatment. The first case in the county was that of Rae Hillerman, aged two, of Coldwater.

WOMAN OUTWITS SLY EGG THIEF

BEDFORD, Ind., Sept. 14 (INS)—It was a sly old fox that grabbed the turkey eggs on the farm of Mrs. Hazel Blackburn, near Fayetteville, but he didn't outfox" Mrs. Blackburn, who waited until he appeared and then stopped him with a shotgun. All was quiet until afternoon. The turkey had an egg and sat down nearby. Then she spotted the fox and blasted it with the shotgun. The animal measured 19 inches from nose to tip of tail, big enough to catch and eat the turkey, too.
