Hilarious Comedy At Sigma Stars Jack Haley

Standing alone at the top of the screen ladder is "Take It Big" hilarious comedy starring Jack Haley, Harriet Hilliard and Mary Beth Hughes. It is one of the season's liveliest musical packages and opens Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

Bing Crosby has added another feather in his hat of movies in "Gong My Way" wheh is now playing at ; the Ohio theatre. Bing plays the part of a music loving priest who softens the heart of the hardest boy in his parish with his music. Coming to movie lovers in one of his greatest roles in his screen career is Pat O'Brien in "Secret Command" now playing at the Quilna theatre. O'Brien plays the part of an FBI agent who is disliked by almost everyone because of his strange actions but when everything starts to run smoothly. "Show Business," the story of vaudeville and its slow decline from its days of glory. No one can ever know the triumph felt in an amateur's heart after his first big performance but Eddie Cantor re-enacts it in this superb film now playing at the State they find out what a hero he is,

"Heaven Can Wait" but that isn't all that is waiting; all who are waiting to see the best movie of the season will not want to miss it. It is now playing at the Lyric theatre:

Signe Hasso, alluring young Swedish "find," has finally started her Hollywood career, after mastering the English language. Signe makes her debut in the delightful Technicolor comedy "Heaven Can Wait," which Ernst Lubitsch produced and directed. BANKERS She is cast as a vivacious French maid whose arrival disrupts a staid Fifth-av household of the Say Nineties. In the picture, now playing at the Lyric theatre. Signe is engaged to tutor the young son of the family. This she does all too well -not only does her teaching cover the language but his extra-curricular activities as well!

Gene Tierney and Don Ameche head a large featured cast in the
