Snow White And Dwarfs Return To Lima Thursday

Returning in all the glory which it had previously possessed is "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" coming Thursday to the State theatre. This movie, showing all the things that many grown ups, as children, read and dreamed about, is truly a great production and has kept audiences completely enthused thruout its showing time. Don't miss it.

Warmth, music, laughter and tears are the four things which helped to make this great movie what it is today, an inspiration to everyone. Bing Croshy has reached the height of his career as the gay padre of the toughest parish in New York in a picture that will live forever in your heart, "Going My Way" now showing at the Ohio theatre.

Ina Ray Hutton, famous radio orchestra director, comes to the screen of the Quilna theatre in "Ever Since Venus," laughable comedy which will keep you in one of two places; on the edge of your seat or rolling in the aisles with

Jack Haley, famous radio comedian, has begun an engagement at the Sigma theatre in one of his greatest screen roles. "Take It Big" has as its stellar cast along with Haley, Harriet Hilliard, Ozzie Nelson, Mary Beth Hughes, and many other great stars. Playing its last at the Lyric theatre is "Heaven Can Wait" with Don Ameche and Gene Tierney. Coming Thursday will be "Call of the South Seas" and "Law of Pam writes a song, and plays dead, when "Pam Sings a Song of Murder," on "Mr. and Mrs. North," on Wednesday at 7 p. m., over Station WEAF. For a time, suspicion falls on Jerry North as a rightfully enraged husband, but he soon proves that he had nothing to do with it. The Norths launch another of their chill-andchuckle investigations, and find the killer. Joseph Curtin and Alice Frost star as "Mr. and Mrs.

Highlights from Mozart's operatic masterpiece "Don Giovanmi" will be presented on "Great Moments in Music" starring Soprano Jean Tennyson in the broadcast Wednesday at 9 p. m., over Station WABC. Joining Miss Tennyson will be Tenor Jan Peerce, Baritone Earl Wrightson and Basso Virgilio Lazzari. Emcee Perry Ward will pace a weird collection of musical clues over Station CBS' Scramby Amby broadcast of Wednesday, at 6:20 p. m, EST. "Mr. District Attorney" is an unwelcome customer when a black marketeer decides to sell out in "The Case of the Visionary Thief" Wednesday, over Station WEAF, 8.30 p. m., EST. Sensing victory in the air, the merchant decides to retire on his illegal profits before the bubble bursts. But the D. A. (Jay Jostyn), aided by Miss Miller (Vicki Vola) and Harrington (Len Doyle), moves in before the criminal moves out. Curt and curvacious Joan Blondell will tell Frank Sinatra all about that tree that grows in Brooklyn on his Wednesday night show, at 8:00 p. m., EST, over Station WABC. The program will originate from the Palm Springs Ferrying Division Base.
