"Foreign Correspondent" To Open Wednesday At Sigma

Unforgettable is the extraordinarily human story of "Foreign Correspondent" which tells the adventures of an extremely adventurous newspaper correspondent, his troubles, and his angles used in saving his skin. "Foreign Correspondent" opens Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

Unsurpassable is a very good adjective to use in the description of 'Dragon Seed" which is now playing at the Ohio theatre. Katharine Hepburn, from all looks of things. will come out with the Academy Award.

Perhaps the greatest movie ever to be made about a man since the Abe Lincoln series is "Mr. Winkle Goes To War" starring Edward G. Robinson and now showing at the Quilna theatre. You'll not want to miss it.

Steadfastly they stand, willing to take the brunt of the war are the "White Cliffs of Dover" and forever may they stand. The picture is now playing at the State She's great! And, that is no under estimation. Who? Why "Claudia," of course and she is now visiting the Lyric theatre but only for a short stay.

Occasionally there appears in the realm of fiction a character whose personality is so vital, so real and so engaging as to become a household word and a classic of Americana. Such a character was Rose Franken's "Claudia." She first was noticed on the pages of Redbook magazine, and her name became a literary watchword.
