

Week-End Bills Of Lima Theatres List Great Films

Comedy Plays Prominently In Features

Great beyond the point of description are the movies which are now at the local theatres. Surpassing anything which has so far been made on celluloid, these movies are standing in line for the Academy award. Theatre audiences have been expecting the better movies and Hollywood has again begun to turn them out.

Comedy seems to have taken things in hand and is leaving the audiences at the Ohio theatre in a general state of hilarity. Cary Grant, who has the title role in "Arsenic and Old Lace" which is now playing at the Ohio theatre, keeps things rolling in this thriller-comedy.

"Wing and a Prayer"—The Story of Carrier X which is now playing at the Quilna theatre, tells a story that heretofore could not be told but which undoubtedly will interest many. Don't miss it.

That girl really gets around and that can be said in now uncertain terms. Yes, Maisie has been nearly everywhere and now we find her in Reno in "Maisie Goes to Reno." This is the greatest hit of the entire Maisie series and you won't want to miss it while it is playing at the Sigma theatre.

Frankie is here again girls in "Step Lively" at the State theatre. The situation seems to be pretty well in hand so matters will get to stand as they are.

"Belle of the Police Gazette"—Well, perhaps not quite as bad as that but "Sweet Rosie O'Grady," the picture opening Monday at the Lyric theatre, will show just how things stood back in the so-called "good old days."

"STEP LIVELY" BROUGHT TO SCREEN AT STATE

One of the greatest comedy successes in Broadway history, "Room Service," is brought to the screen of the State theatre, in tuneless fashion as the basis of latest musical fun-film, "Step Lively."

With Frank Sinatra, George Murphy, Adolphe Menjou and Gloria De Haven heading its all-star cast, the picture deals with a fast-talking theatre man's hectic efforts to stage a musical revue before his creditors and the hotel where he is living on credit can combine forces to wreck his career.

Starred with Betty, America's favorite, are Robert Young and Adolphe Menjou, two of the top actors in Hollywood.

SCENE FROM QUILNA FILM—In the role of an ex-movie star and proud possessor of an Academy Award, William Eythe beguiles his shipmates with tales of Hollywood love in "Wing And A Prayer"—The Story of Carrier X which is now playing at the Quilna theatre. The first great screen drama of our carrier force in action, the epic also features Don Ameche, Dana Andrews, Charles Bickford and Sir Cedric Hardwicke with a brilliant supporting cast.

TWO NEW PARTNERS FOR BETTY—Lovely Betty Grable has a brace of new partners in her latest Technicolor musical, "Sweet Rosie O'Grady," the hit opening Monday at the Lyric theatre. Said to be even better than Betty's other hit, the film co-stars Robert Young and Adolphe Menjou with her. A smash, preview critics are saying—and with Betty in rare form, how could it miss?

BEAUTIES WARBLE—A bevy of beauties warble with the Voice, in "Step Lively," new musical starring Frank Sinatra, with George Murphy and Gloria DeHaven, and now playing at the State theatre.

ROSIE O'GRADY TO OPEN AT LYRIC ON MONDAY

There never was a girl like Rosie. You remember—Rosie O'Grady, they called her. And now her adventures are depicted in the new technicolor hit slated to open Monday at the Lyric theatre, entitled "Sweet Rosie O'Grady"—and is she ever a honey! Who plays Rosie? None other than the Army's favorite pin-up girl—blonde, beautiful Betty Grable, the gal with the shapely legs, out-of-this-world voice and a smile that can defrost even the iciest heart.

NITE LIFE FOOTNOTES

BLINKING OWL CLUB—This N. West-end rendezvous of friends is made a nightly relaxation spot for lots of "Owl-ers." The stimulants are consistently good.

LOUIE'S NITE CLUB—This management dispenses an air of friendly hospitality along with an astonishing amount of alcoholic nourishment.

ROXY BAR—Where the gang comes early and spends the evening amid sprightly conversation and a wealth of generously-ladled bottled goods.

DARE RAINBOW ROOM—Dancing at its diversified best is performed six nights per week in the highly populated Rain Room to juke box accompaniment.

COURT CAFE—Dick Davis, football prognosticator with undeniable business acumen, is holding court with Ray Johns and Harry Walters acting as accessories after the fact.

NEW YORKER RESTAURANT—Mike Lambros is featuring "Chicken in the Basket" as headliner on his appetizing menu. Suitable appetizers are available.

IMPERIAL CAFE—Harry Minton, genial distributor of good fellowship and potables, occupies the driver's seat here. The service is good.

ALPHA NITE CLUB—There's always room for one more friendly elbow at Bill Reese's famed mahogany. Musical background is provided six nights a week for the dance-minded.

A & A CAFE—Popular with weary workers who relax in the robust atmosphere of friendly drinking.

ALPINE VILLAGE—Kroske's bandmen provide the dance music for the village patrons. The well-stocked bar does the rest.

DUTCH'S CAFE—Situating just off the main circuit, this popular oasis maintains a full house all the time.

ANDY'S CAFE—Andy's famous lunches are packing in the noon-day patrons. Wines to take out.

WALDO BATHSKELLAR—It's just a step down and in Lima's tavern-down-under where the dance music is consistent and the alcoholics plentiful.

ADAM'S CAFE—Where the south Lima folk gather in gay crowds for evening enjoyment. Harry Flores has a large stock of wines in various brands and vintages designed for home consumption.

WALDO GRILL—Palate-tickling foods served as a meal or as a midnight snack find favor with Lima's food conscious.

GREAT DRAMA OF CARRIER FORCES SHOWS AT QUILNA

Revealing the thrilling saga of the strangest course a ship ever sailed... the strangest venture fighting men ever dared, "Wing And A Prayer"—The Story of Carrier X, now playing at the Quilna theatre.

The first great drama of carrier forces ever filmed, the 20th Century-Fox picture stars Don Ameche, Dana Andrews and William Eythe.

Jack Benny, Mary And Phil Return To Air On Sunday

Jack Benny returns to the air Sunday over Station WFAF at 6 p. m. EST. Fred Allen will be a special guest to celebrate the start of Jack's Lucky Thirteen season on the air waves. No holds will be barred, and while boxing gloves aren't written into the script, the program producer will have them handy.

Jack will have the gang back with him. Mary Livingstone, the gal friend who heckles him even as she loves him; Phil Harris, the baton-wielding mug who surprised his boss this year by learning to read; Rochester, factotum of the Benny household who sees that his boss' suits don't wear out hanging idle in the closet; and Jack's announcer for these past 12 years, Don Wilson.

"The Sleigh" by Richard Kountz and Ernest Charles "Clouds" are the John Charles Thomas solos on the "Westinghouse Program" Sunday, over WFAF, 1:30 p. m. EST.

Maestro Victor Young's own "Sweet Sue" will be given a Kea Darby treatment by the chorus along with "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World" by Rodgers and Hart.
