Dennis Day, Ann Sheridan Team In Sigma Picture

Coming to the screen of the Sigma theatre Wednesday is one of the greatest musical hits of the season, "Music In Manhattan," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Day.

It's sensational and it will only be here for a few days so don't miss seeing it while you have the chance. "Arsenic and Old Lace" featuring Cary Grant in the title role, has something which no other movie ever

Going in the direction of bigger and better things, "Wing and a Prayer," now playing at the Quilna theatre, proves that the outlook for better moving pictures is becoming better.

Creating quite a thrilling disturbance at the State theatre is "Step Lively," starring Frank Sinatra who seems to keep not only the girls swooning but who tries it himself.

"Those were the good old days!" This phrase and many other words used to the same effect can be heard these days and for the younger generation, -it may sound a little like Greek. So to learn just what parents mean when they say "Those were the good old days," see "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" now playing at the Lyric theatre.
