Ross Asks Clergy to Talk War Fund

Frank A. Ross, Madison, president of the Wisconsin War Fund, today asked Wisconsin clergymen to talk on the coming War Fund campaign the Sunday before it begins. In letters to the clergymen Ross said that the oppeal was issued in behalf of the young men and women from each congregation who are in service. He suggested that each clergyman announce the date of the opening of the campaign in his county and that he give some information about the National War Fund, with which the Wisconsin War Fund is affiliated. The fund raises money for the USO and 21 other war relief organizations.

Rubens was 26 years old at that time. It was an honor to serve deserve it, but during the long, tiresome journey, the rain kept falling and fulling. Twenty days were rainy! With such ill fortune, it is little wonder that the paintings were damaged. Two of them were ruined altogethert What could the young man do? He could use a brush!

With fine skill, he retouched the damaged pictures, and painted new ones to replace the two which had been ruined. He said nothing about this when he reached his journey's end, and the Spanish king, Philip III, was deighted by all the paintings, little dreaming what the young artist had done to them. While in Madrid, Reubens painted portraits of several Spanish nobles. Then he returned to Italy "He is the court painter in the News of his mother's serious ill-
