

Housing Shortage Put On Ice In Alan Young Show

Comedian Alan Young dabbles in real estate and puts the housing shortage on ice during the second session of the "Alan Young Show," on Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m., over WJZ.

As a housing expert, Alan is a joke, as he reveals when he gags his way thru post-war planning and present-day expediencies in a sequence which has him stumbling at the doorstep of his "dream house" to the tuneful serenade of vocalist Diane Courtney's latest hit songs. When the comic tries to equip the house—he never buys an unobtainable electric refrigerator, he has the stogie characters of the show in an utter dither, which leaves them—and him—practically where they came in.

One of the bright young set gets "A Date with Judy" and takes her to a night club which is promptly raided, in the broadcast over Station WJZ on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Taking her escort's tip, Judy doesn't give her right name, but instead, gives her mother's. Then things begin happening, and the mother, unaware of the cause for all the gossip about her, innocently adds to the gossip until she learns the true state of affairs. Louise Erickson stars as Judy.

It's "ginger and spice" that melody maestro Dick Haymes is using as a garnish for "Everything for the Boys," when he serves evocuous Ginger Rogers to the customers as guest star, and Helen Forrest, the G I favorite songstress, in a triple-decker of mirth and music, Tuesday, over WJZ at 6:30 p. m., Lima time.

33 K. OF C. CANDIDATES TO RECEIVE DEGREES

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—The first degree will be conferred on a class of 33 candidates by the Ottawa Council, Knights of Columbus, Thursday evening in the council hall here.

A delegation of members from the local council attended the initiation at Lima Sunday when the second and third degrees were conferred on a class of candidates, according to Grand Knight Rudy Selboist.

ARMY CANCELS CONTRACT FOR SECRET PLANES

CLEVELAND, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The Army Air Forces today announced termination of contracts with the Fisher Body Cleveland aircraft division for production of a new secret fighter plane because of "changes in military requirements."

In announcing termination of the Fisher production schedule, Col. Alfred H. Johnson, central procurement district supervisor for the Air Technical Service Command, said the air forces would continue experimental development of the fighter, known as the P-75. Production of the fighter has been under way for several months but details of the ship are a military secret. The Fisher plant began work on the P-75 in July, 1947, and the first experimental model was in the air within four months, company officials said.

Company officials said that other high-priority air forces work will be assigned to the Fisher plant.

who have been building the fighter plane. Other workers will be transferred to production of B-29 Superfortress parts, they added.

Magnesium is so weak in its pure state that a small boy could bend a half-inch bar, yet it is so tough as an alloy that it will stand the shock of landing a 30-ton warplane.

Hopalong Cassidy In Top Western Hit Of Season

Hopalong Cassidy is coming to the Sigma theatre in his top hit of the season, "Forty Thieves." Yes, Hoppy is again pursuing the people who persist in breaking the law. It's another thriller you will not want to miss.

"An American Romance" starring Brian Donlevy and lovely Ann Richards is coming Friday to the Ohio theatre in a 132-city premiere. The Ohio theatre is one of the chosen few who have the honor of playing this film.

COMING UP
OHIO—An American Romance' coming Friday.
QUILNA—Sweet and Low Down and Dangerous Journey start Friday.
SIGMA—Forty Thieves' and Dixie Jamboree due Wednesday.
STATE—Adventures of Mark Twain' and The Holy Apo' due Thursday.
LYRIC—The Lady and the Monster' and West of the Rio Grande begin Thursday.
DRIVE-IN—Cannons in Burlesque and Unknown Guest' commence Wednesday.

Lovely Frances Langford, famous thrush of radio and stage, sings three songs, written especially for her by Michael Breen and Sam Neuman, in "Dixie Jamboree," opening Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. The songs are "If It's a Dream," "Big Stuff," and "Dixie Showboat."

As the title indicates, Dixie Jamboree is a story of the South, with songs on a Mississippi showboat. Miss Langford and Guy Kibbee are co-stars in this exciting melange of melody, mirth and melodrama, which unfolds its story as the "Ellabelle," the last of the Mississippi showboats, winds its way down to New Orleans.

There is much music besides the songs of Miss Langford. Fifi D'Orsay, French chanteuse, comedienne, sings "No-No-No," also by Breen and Neuman, and the Ben Carter Choir of forty mixed voices sings the spiritual "You Ain't Right With The Lord," and other Negro songs, and join in the grand ensemble with Miss Langford in "The Dixie Showboat." The underscored music is descriptive and enhancing.

QUILNA

Pleasing to the eye and ear, filled with sufficient action to satisfy the most avid Western fans, is the latest lavishly produced musical, starring Roy Rogers, "Song of Nevada," which is now playing at the Quilna theatre.

Rogers rides, sings and spreads the easy charm which has made him the foremost Western star in the motion picture business, in the new film, while Dale Evans and Mary Lee, both singers as well as actresses, are seen in top roles.

LYRIC

Fun and laughter abound in "Holy Matrimony" in the hilarious new picture which is now showing at the Lyric theatre. Starring bearded Monty Woolley and amiable Grace Fields, the picture is aimed at your funny-bone—and it scores a direct hit.
