Packers, Rams Battle for Lead

GREEN BAY—(U.P.)—The lead in the western division of the Na-tional Professional Football League will be at stake when the Green Bay Packers and the Cleve-land Rams clash here Sunday in the Packers' last home game of the season.

The Rams crept up on the Bays last Sunday by rallying to defeat the Detroit Lions, 20-17, at De-troit. It was their third straight league victory and left their record unblemished.

Green Bay approached the showdown undefeated in four league starts, although they bowed. 38-13, in an exhibition match against the Philadelphia Eagles at Nashville, Tenn., during the
