"Address Unknown" Pleases Film Fans On Lyric Screen

Heard around the world was the scream of a beautiful weman i terrible distress. In the United States her fiance hears this scream, more or less, by mental telepathy. Martin, played by Paul Lucas, can not explain this strange happening and as all people have paid for the works of the Nazi tyrants, so did Martin. "Address Unknown" is not playing at the Lyric theatre.

Sonny Tufts, a quite new addition to the film colony, really goes places in his latest picture. "I Love a Soldier," at the Ohio theatre, which has as the co-star, Paulette Goddard.

Words cannot express the feelng displayed in "Wilson," currently showing at the Quilna theatre. Woodrow Wilson was perhaps one of the greatest presidents the United tSates has ever known, yet his work never received the appreciation to which it was entitled. Crazy but true; a woman became a "Bride by Mistake" and you can see just how in the picture of the same name now showing at the Sigma theatre. "Janie" is quite a girl in the picture of the same name. She is currently shown at the State theatre in a picture that will steal the heart of every parent to say nothing of making the younger general BY LESLIE TURNER tion stop and wonder if they can really be that way sometimes.

LYRIC When "In Old Oklahoma," based on Thomson Burtis' story, "War of the Wildeats," comes on the screen of the Lyric theatre, one of the foremost of the supporting players will be George "Gabby" Hayes, widely beloved as the old-timer comedian of the Roy Stanley Stewart, Mr and Mrs. Tem Rogers westerns, and more recent. Mover and son, Mrs. Woodrow Ly, the Wild Bill Elliott pictures: Mrs. Marinn Rasor and Irone, Mrs. Mrs. Marinn Rasor and Irone, Mrs. Mrs. Marinn Rasor and Irone, Mrs. Mrs. he sterling portrayals of Hayes, Mrs. Ola Razor. Mariorie Rambeau, Grant Withers, Paul Fix and Cecil Cunningham have a great deal to do with making the nicture the deluxe production it is said to be.
