"Catherine The Great" Returns Here By Request

Returning by popular request to the Sigma theatre is one of the better pictures Hollywood turned out a few seasons back. That is "Catherine the Great." Certainly no one will want to miss this picture which depicts the more human aide of the great empress.

Lots of women love soldiers but not the way Paulette Goddard does as shown in "I Love a Soldier" currently showing at the Ohio theatre, i

His ideas blasted because of the lack of support by his own country, "Wilson" appeared to be an unhappy man. To understand his full life's story, see "Wilson" now showing at the Quilna theatre.

In the top role of her screen caceer, Bette Davis will appear on the screen of the State theatre Thursday in "Mr. Skeffington." "Janie" and "Dramatic School" will bow out as this magnificent film comes to take their place.

John Wayne plays the part of a typical cowboy and the methods he uses to get around a city slicker, known to screen fans as Albert Dekker is shown in "In Old Oklahoma" now showing at the Lyric theatre.

QUILNA

"Sometimes the life of a man mirrors the life of a nation. The destiny of our country was crystallized in the life and times of Washington and Lincoln, and perhaps, too, in the life of another president. This is the story of America and the story of a man -Woodrow Wilson, twenty-eighth president of the United States."

With these words. Darryl F. Zanuck's "Wilson" is introduced to the screen. A heroic dedication. This panoramic technicolor film THREE KILLED IN marks the culmination of all the the motion picture America's favorite entertainment in the brief' span of a generation. In "Wilson," now at the Quilna theatre, the tremendous story of faith in a great ideal is presented. It is rich with the warmth and emotion that any real story of a human being must have, and it has an intimacy that only painstaking research and faithful direchistory-in-the-making. It is a true
