MOVIES FEATURE HOMECOMING OF SERVICEMEN FROM WI

REACTION ON WHIRLWIND COURTSHIPS IS CONSIDERED

Some of the movies this week-end depict the reaction of the men in service who will be returning soon to the wives whom they hardly know, After a whirlwind courtship, they married and he left for overseas duty. Indeed it is a grave situation in some cases and must be given full

Along with these movies are comedy and pathos. Some delve into the mysterious parts of the mind and literally keep the audiences on the edge of their seats.

"The Conspirators" now playing at the Ohio theatre has opened a new field of motion picture production. Hedy Lamarr and Paul Henreid have the starring roles in this magnificent film.

Jean Arthur readily can say that she has added another feather to her hat in "The Impatient Years" now at the Quilna theatre. Jean has been in some superb films but this one is undoubtedly the greatest she has ever appeared in.

Returning to the screen of the Sigma theatre by popular request is "Dead End" starring Humphrey Bogart and the Dead End Kids. This has proved to be one of the most unusual pictures the Dead End Kids have ever made.

There is no doubt about it. Bette Davis and Claude Rains give out with a superlative performance in "Mr. Skeffington" which opens Sunday at the State theatre.

Kay Kyser keeps everyone spinning in his latest picture, "Around the World" opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre. Georgia Cairoll, formerly vocalist on his radio program and now his wife, also appears with him.
