

Drama Plays Leading Role In Lima Film Offerings

Magnificent Roles Appear In Productions

Drama is playing a leading part in the movies for this Sunday. Many producers have incorporated magnificent dramatic roles in their latest films and the results are tremendous. All over the United States these films are being heralded as the finest Hollywood has ever turned out.

Filmed in a setting of mystery, "The Conspirators," starring Hedy Lamarr and Paul Henreid, is one movie which has little room for improvement. Everything that goes to make up a good picture can be found here.

Teen-agers will be delighted when they see "Meet Miss Bobby Socks" now showing at the Quilna theatre. They will find that they are not entirely alone in their fight for the continuance of the bobby socks, "sloppy Joes" and all the other extremes in wearing apparel.

The spotlight of everyone's thoughts is focused on the men who will be returning to their homes after this war. Many of them will be married to girls whom they hardly know and will seek a divorce. "Lights Go On Again" now playing at the Sigma theatre gives a solution to this problem.

"Mrs. Skeffington" presents some truly fine performances by Bette Davis and Claude Rains. "Mr. Skeffington" can now be seen at the State theatre.

"Black Magic," coming to the Lyric theatre Monday, brings with it Sydney Toler as the Chinese detective Charlie Chan.

LOVELY JEAN IN QUILNA FILM—Lovely Jean Arthur is currently appearing in the romantic comedy, "The Impatient Years," with Lee Bowman and Charles Coburn at the Quilna theatre. Jean plays the wife to whom Bowman returns after having been shipped overseas on the second day of their marriage.

BASEBALL BAT HIS WISH AS NAZI PLANES DOVE IN

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 28—(UP)—While flying high above Germany, Lt. David Hoobler of San Antonio would have given everything he possessed for just one good, sound baseball bat.

It was during his 13th mission over Brunswick, Germany, with six German fighter planes coming in close on the side that Lt. Hoobler found his gun "frozen" and no means of shooting the enemy.

All he had to use on the Germans was the gun, which he could not throw. "At that moment," said Lt. Hoobler, "I wished more fervently for a baseball bat than I ever have for anything before."

NITE LIFE FOOTNOTES

BARR RAINBOW ROOM—Lima's colorful rendezvous of dance music and pleasurable stimulants remains near the top on the places to go in town list.

IMPERIAL CAPE—Harry Milton's super service is the big factor here. A good cross section of the drinking population is well represented in the nightly patronage.

DUTCH CAPE—Johnny Leonard is in charge of the busy beer taps at this conveniently situated downtown cafe.

ALPHA NITE CLUB—Orchestral music provides accompaniment for the dancers here six nights per week. But Rex is Mr. Big.

WALDO GRILL—Tasty foods prepared by the munitable Henry lure the diners-out to this Public-sq eatery.

ALPINE VILLAGE—The villagers dance every night except Monday to tunes by Karl Kroske and his five men.

NEWYORKER RESTAURANT—"Chicken in the Basket" still occupies the number one spot on the menu priority. Excellent alcoholics are available.

LOUIS NITE CLUB—Favorite haunt of factory and railroad workers who relax to juke-box melodies and friendly atmosphere.

BLINKING OWL CLUB—Renowned N. West-end euphorium of free spacious enjoyment for those who can spare that extra drop of gas.

ADAM'S CAPE—South Lima's hospitable tavern where the lights are bright and the stimulants plentiful.

COURT CAPE—This rumored that King Richard was forced a little out-of-bounds in his last week's score predictions. The football expert came up smiling however.

A & A CAFE—Lima's premier cafe house is known throughout the district for its well-cubbed beverages. Lots of people.

WALDO KATHSKELLAR—Happy followers of the neons find dance music and many pause to refresh at the malignity here.

ANDY'S CAFE—Business men's meals are the big attraction here. Wines for home consumption may be purchased from the manager's supply which embraces all brands and vintages.

ROX—Bar-Ton and Events frequenters tend to the wains of the nightly overflow here. Focal point for the boy-meets-girl motif.

Kay Kayser's Film Musical Is At Lyric

Based on a novel premise, Kay Kyser's new starring film musical, "Around the World," opens at the Lyric theatre Monday to prove itself one of the sprightliest offerings of the season.

A globe-girdling tour of American bases in foreign lands, with the popular Kyser taking his band and a bevy of beauties with him to raise the morale of the boys abroad, comprises the framework of the picture. On this, and its comedy interludes which involves a farcical spy plot with unexpected results, Kyser and Producer-Director Allan Dwan have hung five sparkling camp show sequences, each presenting a pair of catchy tunes and various gay dance routines and spectacles.

Put together, they make "Around the World" a thoroughly delightful piece of film fare. Kay turns in his best performance to date, and Mischa Auer, Joan Davis, Marcy McGuire, Wally Brown and Alan Carney, who head the featured cast, are splendid in their respective roles.

Eight children were born to the union. They are George and Ray who live on the home farm; Lloyd and Lamont of Cleveland; Mrs. Dale Agner of Ottawa; Mrs. Adam Stewart of Columbus Grove; Mrs. Helen Williams of Nashville, Tenn.; and Mrs. Dorothy Southard of Dayton.

There are 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

REJECT UNION

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 28—(AP)—Employees of the American Rolling Mills Co. plant here for the third time rejected The United Steelworkers of America, CIO, as their collective bargaining agent, this time by a vote of 1301 to 987, the National Labor Relations Board announced today.

AUTO KILLS BOY

COLUMBUS, Oct. 28—(AP)—An automobile killed seven-year-old William Kuhn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Kuhn, in front of their home yesterday.

Rubinstein Sunday Soloist On "Symphony Of The Air"

The noted pianist, Artur Rubinstein, will be soloist Sunday for the second concert of the nine-week Beethoven festival, which Arturo Toscanini is conducting on the Symphony of the Air over WFAF, 4 to 5 p. m., Lima time.

The irreplaceable better half of the Bumstead family turns employment agent in "Blondie Hires an Office Boy," on Sunday at 7 p. m. over Station WABC. Mr. Dithers finds himself in need of an alert, ambitious young man and Blondie recommends Sterling, ex-delivery boy. Unfortunately, Sterling becomes so good that J. C. fires Dagwood and elevates the office boy to his position. Some double-dealing on the part of Blondie and Dithers is necessary before the situation is righted.
