Roundy:

Somewhere in New Guinea Some time ago I received your very fine letter and want you to know I certainly appreciate hearing from you. We have been across for a long time now over 31 months and half of that time has been spent in the combat zone. You can well imagine the boys of the original 32nd Division are anxious to get back to the states again and see some American civilization. It's been a long time.

At present I am in the hospital with something or other wrong with my right leg. However, this is a mighty fine sleeping in a bed again with a mattress and spring is quite a luxury.
I enjoy your column more than ever and occasionally when I get it it brings good old Madison pretty close for a few short minutes. I have seen quite a bit of the rugged New Guinea jungles and am looking forward to the time when can see the jungles of Brit tingham Park again.

Thanks again, Roundy, and here's hoping the Badgers have a good season this year. Cherrio and sincerely yours, S-Sgt. Ozzle Johnson.

So when this is over we must inaugurate a policy of fair play in our dealings and see to it that other nations fall in line. This way I believe is the only means of averting another disaster as we are faced with today. Enough of that, I don't know how I ever got started.

Well I must sign off now and hoping this finds both of you enjoying good health.

Say hello to all for me and write soon.

Roundy:

Here I am again Roundy, but this time only with a request. Today we had quite a discussion regarding football as played in the different part of the states. One thing about these Easterners is that they are difficult to convince as an army mule.

We would like to have you settle a little bet for us. Would it be possible for you to mail me the first. lers' Alleys was the high ladies' In other Friday night games West Texas State defeated the
