By JOE DOMMERSHAUSEN Post-1944 Madison high school football season jottings:

Drew 55,250

The approximate attendance for the 18 high school football games played at Breese Stevens field this season is 55,250 fans, adjudged an all-time record.

The expected 60,000 figure was not reached last weekend as only 2,100 fans saw Edgewood complete an undefeated season with a 26-0 defeat of Milwaukee Country Day and a disappointing crowd of 3,-400 witnessed East's win over Central.

The largest crowd of the season was the 10,200 in attendance at the West-East 7-7 tie. The smallest crowd was the 400 at the Edgerten-Wisconsin High game.

Al Dockery, brilliant Central end, is also lost to the uptown school for the basketball season. The Negro sopho-more, has his arm and shoulder in a cast for treatment of a double fracture.
