Entering through the many gateways behind the banks of iot races and other sports were Virgins, and there was a special box for the emperor.

Chariots were driven to stalls at one end of the field, and were made ready for the first race. All eyes were turned on the officer of the day, who held a piece of white cloth high in the air. In a moment he dropped the cloth, and the race was on!

Out dashed four chariots-Red, Blue, White and Green-drawn by horses noted for their speed and endurance.

The watching throng bellowed out cheers, and the noise could be heard several miles away. The chariotecra lashed their steeds with long whips, and each tried to be first around the posts. There was a struggle to get the inside position at either end of the
