"Since You Went Away" To Open At Ohio Friday Night

Friday, Lama will see an epic in the picture "Since You Went Away" opening at the Ohio theatre. Not "spectacular," not full of the hammuch frieworks which are so often passed off as substitution for real nit, "Since You Went Away" in its simple, almost humble story of an American family reaches a cres tof power which few other films for all pyrotechnics they may have employed could attain, its producers say,

At the big War Bond premiere; at the Ohio tonight, the feature attraction is "The Princess and the Pir ite" and admission only will be by purchase of a War Bond or a ticket denoting such purchase

Nothing could be finer than this show called "Caroline Blues" open ing at the Quilia theatre. It has Kay Kyser and his band, Ann Miller and Victor Moore There's Jeff Donnell, Ish Kabibble Georgia Carroll, Harry Babbitt Sully Mason, Diane Pendleton, Harold Nicholas, The Christianis The Layson brothers and the Four Step

It's romanitic as moonlight and nagnohas besides a hencat's heaven a wolf's paradise and a Shangrida for laughs Fredue March may have played many an important role in Holly wood films but he'll never cherish them as long as he has Marcus Superbus the role of whom he portrass in 'the Sign of the toss" now playing at the Sigma theatre. No finer acting can be found anywhere than in this movie which was called back by popular request

The shenanigans at the State the itre where "Hail the Conquer ing Here' now is playing will bring back fond memories of "The Miracle of Morgan's Creck" The story deals with a colossal fraud-
