ROUNDY'S MAIL BAG

Dear Ole Chi. Nov. 22, 1944.

Dear dirty specs: Well no doubt you saw where I Martin Marion shortstop of st. louis cards.

Well if you got them specs of yourn clean you saw where he was picked as best in National League. Well Roundy if you aint seen a long lean shoristop you got to see Slats next year. Is he sweet and how brother.

When he pegs that apple from deep short it goes to first like a froze cloths line. Of course that will knock you for a loop but in case you dont know what it means that horsehide goes like a bullet. And I dont mean a 22 either I mean one of those like Army uses.

Had quite a time with friend of yourn Harry Wismer. He certain-you people dont appreciate great guys like you you picked more football winners than any other so far this year. Don't break the buttons off your coat when your chest swells up.

Yea I guess the war has you down and thats why you aint steamed up on football. Me to I dont see how these pros get away with being fit to play football but not for Army. Do you laft or is birds used to work in sandwich shop I never saw anybody slice them as thin as these two babies. Fine fellows and do they ever know how to pet them ivorys with make a shot count they play it safe and when I say safe I mean as safe as a bug in a rug. You football or billiards but you remember I went to coast to look told you I couldnt see no all American material there. A n d

You thought I was some young squirt but brother when I layed that history on the line back to before 1885 you must of threw that tin star so far you couldnt dont believe I have that baseball and if you dont want it brother just keep that hollow

I keep them things in Cleveland where no doubt I will be but I have office girl who can send it Maybe a guy should have a wife but do you remember Kay and them dames that was with me when I played golf in Madison.

these days Ill be in Madison again not this year but next. And where will you be. Just like five or six times I was did you do but head for parts unknown.

Some day I'm going to walk right into where you live if you still live on East Wilson or I'm going up on second or third floor of Journal and put a red ribbon in your typewriter. If you aint got your specs on I bet your blind as a bat vet without them specs you can see the groceries only four miles away.

Why you wear specs is more than I no. Are you still driving that Kenesha pot iron. Or did you svin enough lettuce on the election to buy a new game of golf to play by broadcasting. Will that ever be one for the books. I don't no how well ne plays but when my underground gives me the dope will I ever take him for a ride.

ANCIENT EGYPT It has been a long time since have seen a chariot race, but remember watching a few of Chariots went out of fashion many hundreds of years ago, so you may wonder how I could have seen a race of that kind. The answer is that I saw chariot races at a circus while I was a boy. Whether the events took place at Ringling Brothers or Barnum and Bailey's, I am not sure. Those
