- Wisconsin State Journal Madison Saturday, December 9, 1944 Pop' Malone's 672 Takes 10-Pin Honors

Harold "Pop" Malone, one of Sauk City's top ranking bowlers demonstrated his pin toppling power to a degree of expertness in the Businessmen's League at the Playdium Alleys Friday night as he pounded out a 672 series for top honors in city bowling.

By blasting out games of 255, 203 and 214 in his anchor position in his Sauk City team lineup, Malone topped a list of six honor count keglers of the night. He was 34 pins ahead of his closest rival, Larry Stelter, who hit 628, including a 262 game, in opposing Malone.
