

LIMA THEATRE MARQUEES CARRY HOLLYWOOD'S BEST

SATURDAY'S SCREENS DEPICT MOVIEDOM'S NEWEST FILMS

You can hunt high, low, in every nook and cranny, all over the world and any place else you can think of and you still won't find a town with theatre marquees like the ones in Lima this Saturday. The theatres are really in the groove with some of the newest pictures out of Hollywood.

At the Ohio you will find Lana Turner starring in "Marriage Is a Private Affair" but where she is concerned—don't be too sure. James Craig and John Hodiak (the man who has her for a wife) seem to be having a tough time explaining to this lovely blonde beauty that "Marriage Is a Private Affair."

"Till the Colonel Wait" was a reply which confronted the lieutenant in the moving, heart-warming picture "In the Meantime, Darling" now showing at the Quina theatre. What happens after that is a secret until you see the picture.

"Presenting Lily Mars" starring Judy Garland is one of the most beautiful love stories to come out of show business. This movie depicts the rise of a plain and ordinary girl to fame. It is showing at the Sigma theatre.

John Wayne can take care of himself as can easily be seen in his latest picture "Till in the Saddle" opening Sunday at the State theatre.

"Crazy House" is nough to drive anyone crazy. The new picture just out of Hollywood starring Olsen and Johnson brings to the Lyric theatre, a host of stars which includes Cass Daley, comedienne and Alan Jones, another singer with a golden voice.

DOPEY DICKS—Laurel and Hardy, the devastating duo of dopey dicks in "The Big Noise," which is playing at the Quina theatre, follow a hot clue and come to the monumental discovery that where there's smoke there's fire. In the hilarious 20th Century-Fox hit, the shivery Sherlock mix blondes with bombs setting off the year's biggest blowout of fun and laughter. Featured in the cast are Boris Merrick, Arthur Space and Veda Ann Borg.

WITH ORCHESTRA—Above is pretty Patti Dugan, vocalist with Johnny Long and his orchestra who will make a one-day personal appearance at the Ohio theatre. Mrs. Dugan has a style that commands attention in both ballads and rhythm tunes. Don't miss her.

SOLDIER HURT
TROY, O., Dec. 16—(INS)—Pvt. Raymond Favorite, 18, of Troy, was in the Patterson Field hospital at Dayton today with a badly mangled foot, suffered when a shotgun he was loading in preparation for a hunting trip was accidentally discharged. Favorite was on furlough from Bear Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

COUNTY GETS $1,200,000
TROY, O., Dec. 16—(AP)—Miami-co has a $1,200,000 account in The Chase National bank of New York today as a legacy from Jacob Conch, who spent his boyhood here. Bettner, who specified the money was to be used in constructing a hospital between here and Piqua, reports stated.

$2,500 JUDGMENT
COLUMBUS, Dec. 16—(AP)—Clara McClure of Charleston, W. Va., yesterday was awarded a federal court judgment of $2,500 against The Chillicothe-Gallipolis Coach Co. In a suit she asked $15,000 for injuries she said she suffered when a company bus overturned between Chillicothe and Gallipolis Oct. 13, 1942.

SLEDS USED TO TAKE 2 WOMEN TO HOSPITAL

HILLSBORO, O., Dec. 16—(INS)—Two women of near Hillsboro were resting comfortably in the Hillsboro hospital today after a race across the ice and snow on a sled.

Mrs. Walter Hastings, an expectant mother, was advised to enter the hospital immediately and the race with the stork started when her husband summoned an ambulance. Because of snow drifts, the ambulance was unable to travel the entire distance and Mrs. Hastings, wrapped in blankets and warmed by hot bricks, was transported via sled three miles to the stalled ambulance.

Only a few minutes after arrival, she gave birth to a baby boy. Both mother and child were reported in excellent condition.

A similar experience was encountered by Mrs. John Hull, a neighbor of Mrs. Hastings. She was taken to the hospital in the same manner after her attending physician said it was necessary. Nature of Mrs. Hull's illness was not disclosed.

"World's Great Novels" Brings "Pickwick Papers"

Charles Dickens' immortal "The Pickwick Papers" is brought to the air for four weeks on "The World's Great Novels" starting Saturday, over WEAF at 6 p. m., Lima time. I. A. R. Wylie is guest commentator.

In the first of the four parts, Morton Wishegrad's script points up the element of fun sustained by Dickens through the novel. Published in 1836, the book attained immediate success and laid the foundation of Dickens' fame. While the types represented in "The Pickwick Papers" are caricatures, the characters are universally recognized.

Mr. Pickwick, the genial and unsophisticated founder of the club is surrounded by an array of individuals drawn from all classes.

One of the most heartless, yet one of the most fascinating criminals in the FBI files is the central figure in "The Marriage Mart," the exciting crime drama to be heard on "The FBI in Peace and War," on Saturday, over Station WABC at 7:30 p. m.

It is the story of Public Bluebeard No. 1, an innocent-looking little chubby man who was the last person in the world you would take for a Don Juan. This series is based on Frederick L. Collins' noted book, "The FBI in Peace and War."

Another glittering Hollywood star, the lovely Linda Darnell, will join the ranks of famous cinema beauties who have graced the Patsy Kelly show over WEAF at 9 p. m. Linda is vacationing on the east coast following the completion of her latest film, "The Great John L."

MOTHER OF '39 FOUNDED IN WOOSTER HOME

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 16—(INS)—Mrs. Otelia Compton, 85, whose three famous educator-scans brought her the Golden Rule Foundation title as American mother of 1939, was found dead Friday in bed at her Wooster home.

Mrs. Compton was the widow of Dr. Elias Compton, for many years dean of the college of Wooster. The honorary degree of doctor of laws was bestowed on Mrs. Compton by Oxford university in 1932.

The three sons are Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Dr. Arthur Holly Compton of the University of Chicago and famed for comic ray experiments; and Dr. Wilson Compton, recently-elected president of the state college of Washington at Colmar.

She also leaves a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Rice of Allahabad, India, who now is home on leave.

C. O. IS SENT TO JAIL
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 16—(AP)—W. J. Boylan of Newark, O., one of two conscientious objectors charged with refusing to work at the civilian public service camp near Kane, Pa., yesterday was sentenced to four years imprisonment by Federal Judge R. M. Gibson.

PRISONERS TO BE USED
CLEVELAND, Dec. 16—(AP)—The Fifth Service Command said approximately 200 German prisoners of war soon would be assigned to the Army's Crito General hospital here. The prisoners will do maintenance work and care for the hospital grounds, the announcement said.
