

LIMA THEATRES FIT EASILY IN HOLIDAY COLOR SCHEME

COLORFUL MARQUEES ADDING TO CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

This Christmas season, the streets of Lima were not decorated as in the past with the usual Christmas lights, wreaths, etc., but the bright lights on the marquees of the theatres make up for the lack of these gay trimmings. The theatres not only light up the streets in the usual Christmas fashion but they also lift the hearts of many out of the depths of depression for on the screens inside, comedy and everything that goes with it is featured.

Showing at the Ohio theatre this week we find that movie filmed in technicolor, "Kismet," with Marlene Dietrich and Ronald Colman. Ronald Colman plays the part of a magician in this comedy-drama picture.

Fun runs riot at the Sigma theatre where "Rainbow Island," starring Dorothy Lamour and Eddie Bracken, is showing Dorothy appears in her proverbial sarong and on her it's a little bit less than terrific.

"I Love A Soldier" but Paulette Goddard is the only one who can say that to Sonny Tufts. This picture of the same name is opening Sunday at the State theatre. Lana Turner is appearing at the Lyric theatre in the picture "Slightly Dangerous," her last film before leaving the screen about a year ago.

Ellery Queen Adventure Centers On Toy Cannon

Harriet Van Horne, radio editor and columnist of the New York World-Telegram, and contributor on broadcasting subjects to national magazines, will be the armchair detective for Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Toy Cannon," Saturday at 6:30 p. m. Lima time, on WEAF.

The master detective has a baffling crime to solve for Christmas, and saves a little boy.

Quizzical, whimsical Edward Everett Horton, star of several score film hits, will bring his own inimitable brand of humor to the Barry Wood-Patsy Kelly show Saturday over WEAF at 9 p. m. This appearance will mark Horton's return to the air as guest entertainer.

The impact of Army life on the average man, and the changes it makes in his relations with civilians, will be dramatized in "Premier for Civilians," on the Army Service Forces series, "Assignment Home," Saturday at 3:30 p. m. over Station WABC. Differences between the civilian and the

SPECIAL MASTER TO STUDY FACTS IN CONTROVERSY

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 23 (AP)—A special master will study the facts in the controversy between the National Labor Relations Board and The Weirton Steel Co., which operates four mills in Weirton, W. Va., and one in Steubenville, O., the third U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals announced.

The NLRB contends the firm violated a court order, directing it to disband an employer's league as being company-controlled. The board claimed the company "steered" the formation of a new union and discouraged membership in the CIO.

The company says the new union was selected by employees, and that Weirton had nothing to do with it.

The court held the facts before it were not sufficient to grant the NLRB's petition that the Weirton company, seven of its officials and supervisory employees and five officers of a union should be adjudged in contempt of court.

Then Santa ordered his workers to fill up his sleigh with Christmas toys. In a very few minutes you could hardly see the sleigh at all—it was so filled with drums and bows and arrows and doll houses and toy stoves and all such gifts for children all over the world.

"Come now," said Santa to Louis. "And we will take a Merry Christmas to Cameron."

TEAMED IN COMEDY—At last, Lana Turner together with Robert Young in the picture, "Slightly Dangerous," opening Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre. They are teamed in a fast-moving comedy which has Lana an amnesia victim by her own choice and enjoying it, particularly the chase by Robert Young, who has to redeem himself back home. The various twists given to the plot make it unusually funny. And before it is over, Lana and Bob do the very thing you would expect. Uh-huh! Pose for this picture.

LAUSCHE WILL TAKE OATH ON CAPITOL STEPS

CLEVELAND, Dec. 23 (UP)—Governor-Elect Frank J. Lausche will be sworn in office on the west steps of the state capitol building at Columbus at noon Jan. 8, John Lokar, his secretary, announced today.

The oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt of the Ohio supreme court. Both Lausche and Weyandt are former Cuyahoga-co common pleas court judges.

Lokar said Lausche's inaugural address will be about 20 minutes in length after which he will greet his well wishers at a reception in the governor's office.

Retiring Gov. John W. Bricker and Mrs. Bricker have been invited to occupy the inaugural stand. Lokar said, along with newly-elected state officials and Justice Weyandt.

Meanwhile, Lausche said he will be unable to go to Columbus until Dec. 28—the delivery date for $9,000,000 in city bonds. Lausche must sign the bonds for them to become valid.

Lausche will be unable to move into the governor's mansion at Columbus until Jan. 6 because Gov. and Mrs. Bricker have been delayed in moving to their new home.
