Super - Duper Comedy Comes In "One Body Too Many"

Chills, thrills and super-duper comedy herald the coming of "One Body Too Many" to the Sigma theatre Wednesday with stars Jack Haley, Jean Parker and Bela Lugosi. From the Hollywood grapevine come reports that this latest Pine-Thomas production keeps the audience in a state of jitters in between the solid belly-laughs. The simple truth of the matter is that "One Body Too Many" is a comical mystery story using poor Jack Haley as the fall guy. These Hollywood actors and actresses are always thinking up something to do and when they hit upon the idea of a canteen for servicemen and out of that idea came the flourishing Hollywood

Canteen and from that came the basis for the movie "Hollywood Canteen" which now can be seen in its full regalia of stars at the Ohio theatre. The story of how the men in the Air Corps either reach the top or wash out is shown in the great Moss Hart story "Winged Victory" now showing at the Quilna theatre. This movie was written at the request of Gen. Arnold, commander of the Army Air Forces. "Mrs. Parkington," the woman who was faced with the problem of whether or not to give up a fortune in order that she may save her grandson-in-law. You'll enjoy "Mrs. Parkington" which is now showing at the State theatre.

Red Ryder is riding again at the Lyric theatre where "San Antonio Rose" is now being shown. Sharing the bill is "Jamboree."
