To Other People's Woes

Andy and the Kingfish go into the business of listening to other people's wors, bending an ear for a fee, on the Amos 'n' Andy show, Friday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. Their first client is a 65-year-old wealthy widow, who has always yearned for a son. If she had one, he would be about 40 years old.

Earl Wild, promising young pianist, will be the guest on the program, "Stars of the Future," Drastic Labor Friday, at 7 p. m. over WJZ. The singing stars Lawrence Brooks and Frances Greer are program Controls Due regulars of the half-hour show.
