LIMA THEATRES GET FIRST VIEW OF HOLLYWOOD'S BEST

BOGART AND CLASSY NEW

In getting things first hand, moviegoers here in Lima don't seem to be doing so bad. There are good movies and a few which don't quite hit the spot but all in all, the shows Lima have been getting are coming in directly on the beam.

One of Hollywood's newcomers who has enough fire to keep things on the home front without gas is Lauren Bacall. She is co-starred with Humphrey Bogart in "To Have and Have Not" now showing at the Ohio theatre.

Leo Gorcey has actually climbed the ladder until he has reached the point of playing a romantic role. It isn't as bad as you may think, in fact it's actually funny. Gorcey plays in the picture "Block Busters" now playing at the Quil-

An old mansion is reopened to prove that no ghost can kill a man but just the same about three more murders are committed What happens in the picture "Murder in the Blue Room" is left entirely to you to find out. It is now on the screen of the Sigma theatre.

"Marriage Is a Private Affair" and vou can emphasize the word "private." Lana Turner appears in her first picture after more than a year's absence from the screen. She may be seen in "Marriage Is a Private Affair" which opens Sunday at the State theatre.

"Passport To Destiny" gives you the chance to see a wonderful movie. The Lyric theatre will open Saturday midnight with "Passport to Destiny" and billed with it will be "Pinto Bandit."
