

Ration List Doesn't Include Better Movies

Bogart Adds More Laurels To Film Fame

Everything else has gone back on the list of rationed articles, but we can't thank the movie industry for the hope never will be on a list of rationed.

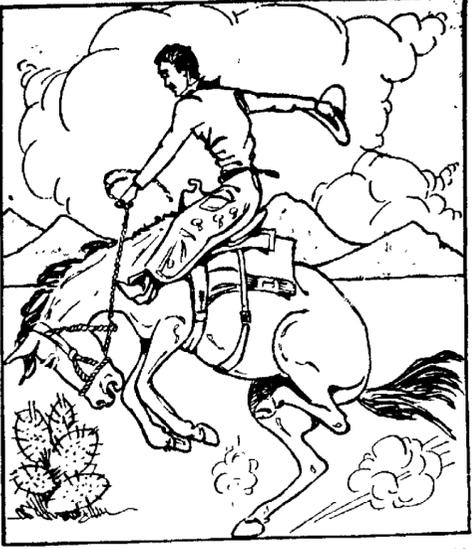

To Have and Have Not is the new Howard Hawks production just out of Hollywood and now playing at the Ohio theatre with a cast headed by Humphrey Bogart as the story of how a powerful man named the "Queen of the Yacht" who had with a cargo that was better than the one. It is not only a tale of adventure, it is also the love story of Henry Morgan (Humphrey Bogart) and a young, beautiful blonde (Lauren Bacall).

An amazing display of screen stars appears in "A Wave, a Wac and a Marine." The picture features a cast of Quilna theatre. Most of the scenes were shot in the sacred precincts of a movie studio where very few people besides those who are related to the picture are allowed.

You have heard of that famed place where someone having ambition in the movie world wishes to get their name in lights. Yes, it is no less than Broadway but very few people have heard of "Broadway to Broadway." Your chance has come to see this place with all its trimmings. "Broadway to Broadway" has been now at the State theatre.

Laura Turner appears in the latest film since returning to play before the cameras after more than a year's absence in "Marriage Is a Private Affair" now playing at the State theatre. Her co-star will be none other than John Hodge.

Dave O'Brien seems to be able to take care of himself in the picture "Pinto Bandit" currently on at the Lyric theatre, Monday will bring the two movies "They Live in Fear" and "Blinking Owl Club."

BUCKING BRONCOS BILLED—Rod Cameron rides a bucking bronco in his latest picture, "Boontown" opening Monday at the Lyric theatre.

COMEDY AND COMPLICATIONS—Anne Gillis, Charles "Red" Marshall and Elyse Knox bring comedy and complications in "A Wave, a Wac & a Marine," currently showing at the Quilna theatre.

Nite Life Footnotes

COURT CAFE—Head Waitress Dorothy exudes gracious charm and personality between doctor's manipulation of alcoholic.

BARR RAINBOW BOOM—Rendezvous of the nocturnal travelers who participate in the accepted version of the dance moderne to rhythms provided by a nickel-urged juke-box.

ANDY'S CAFE—Where business men congregate for wholesome lunches and draught beer that is strictly on the excellent side.

WALDO BATHKITCHEN—Well-ordered revelry is consistent in a bristling sort of way here. Rating near the top on the miterer's must stop list.

BOXY BAR—The bartending staff headed by the brothers Peck, do a remarkable job in fancy drink construction.

A & A CAFE—Wooing in beer is permitted and even encouraged, but everyone has a grand time at this pioneer Lima oasis.

WALDO GRILL—Nourishing foods for regular meal or in between consumption is the flourishing point of customer interest here.

NEW YORKER RESTAURANT—Serving generous quantities of food and drink niftily, this N. Main-st spot caters to a full-house clientele.

ADAMS CAFE—South Lima's joy entry entertains representative groups from all over the district. A variety of bottled ingredients and cooperative tenders keep the customers happy.

DUTCH'S CAFE—Now that the danger of falling walls is removed this E North-st emporium is more popular than ever before. Johnny Leonard is host.

LOUIE'S NITE CLUB—Where the welcome sign and high prices are out and the crowd is thick. A lively place.

ALPHA NITE CLUB—Bill Reese continues the policy of real orchestra music furnished by local handmen.

ALPINE VILLAGE—Visitors cannot resist the marital invitation extended by the Village management. The bar is convenient and extravagantly stocked.

BLINKING OWL CLUB—There's always something going on at Deane's West-st. d. satisfaction to thirst-quenchers are lauded out in generous portions.

NEWYORKER RESTAURANT—By now cooked chicken is the current menu feature here. Mike Lantieri is Mr. Big.

IMPERIAL CAFE—Service is prompt and efficient under Harry Minton's capable management. Recommended for that drink-in-a-hurry feeling.

STAR IN LAUGH RIOT—Teresa Wright and Gary Cooper are co-starred in laugh riot, "Casanova Brown," with Frank Morgan and Anita Louise, and playing at the State theatre.

Charlie McCarthy To Have "Old Home Week" Program

It will be "old home week" on the Charlie McCarthy Show starring Edgar Bergen and Don Ameche on Sunday, for that's the date Dorothy Lamour drops in to see a trio of old friends. Dorothy, Don, Edgar and a couple of ventriloquist's dummies were regular members of the cast when the current coffee program started its run over WEAJ at 7 p. m. way back in May, 1937.

William L. Shirer, noted news analyst, will discuss the significance of the coming meeting of the Big Three in his newscast on Sunday. The commentator is heard regularly Sundays at 4:45 p. m. over WABC.

Campaign promises and political intrigue are in young Alexander's bag of tricks when he decides to run for police chief in "Blondie's Son Votes for Himself" on Sunday at 7 p. m. over Station WABC.

Alexander, who was mayor for a day during last year's Good Government Week, faces pretty stiff opposition from his opponents and, as the election draws closer, the Bumstead home takes on the atmosphere of the traditional smoke-filled convention room. Penny Singleton is heard in the title role; Arthur Lake is Dagwood and Tommy Cook plays Alexander.

Ethel Barrymore uses wisdom and tact in solving a delicate problem for three soldiers home on furlough, when she appears as "Miss Hattie," Sunday at 2:30 p. m. over Station WJZ. Miss Hattie has to be cruel to be kind to her dear friend Anne Hunter, when the latter's son returns unexpectedly from England for a brief respite from active combat duty and brings home a new glimpse of how the war changes fighting men.
