

"They Live In Fear" Is Film Attraction Playing At Lyric

What about this younger generation today and what is it they have to be afraid of? These questions which have arisen during this conflict will be answered in the movie "They Live In Fear" opening at the Lyric theatre Monday. Otto Kruger has the starring role. "Boss of Boomtown" is the co-feature with this attraction.

Step right up and greet the new smooth champion of the motion picture. She's blonde Lauren Bacall, who earned her title by soundly kissing that bold, bad man of the screen, none other than Humphrey Bogart. It was Miss Bacall's first love scene but she did all right. She can be seen in the picture "To Have and Have Not" currently playing at the Ohio theatre.

A picture that rings the bell as a hit comedy of the year is the new film "Block Busters" playing at the Quilna theatre. Starred are the inimitable screen rowdies, the "East Side Kids," who never fail to provide plenty of action and comedy in their films.

Lana Turner can still keep things pretty well under control even though she has been away from the camera for a year or more. This can easily be seen in her latest starring picture "Marriage Is a Private Affair" with the leading man of the picture "Lifeboat," none other than John Hodiak. "Marriage Is a Private Affair" can now be seen at the State theatre.

Jack Oakie really does his stuff in the picture "Bowery to Broadway" now playing at the Sigma theatre. Many other stars such as Susanna Foster, Turhan Bey, and the lovely Maria Montez also are featured in this movie. Co-featured with it is "Murder in the Blue Room."
