

"Main Street After Dark" Introduces Paddy-Rolling

"Main Street After Dark," a new picture just released, suggests a new crime which has been added to the police record since this world-wide conflict began. It happens to be "paddy-rolling" and if it sounds like Greek to you, believe it or not, it's merely a figure of speech.

Paddy-rolling has to do with the "lifting" of wallets and watches and other valuables from returning servicemen. This racket is exposed, but quick, by Edward Arnold who plays the role of a cop that usually ends up with his man. Co-starred with him is Selena Royle, a newcomer to the screen. Sharing the billing at the Sigma theatre is "Destiny" with Gloria Jean and Alan Curtis.

Bogart has met his match but it isn't a man; it's a woman. Don't laugh because his new leading lady, a newcomer by the name of Lauren Bacall, has something that is indescribable but just give the reviewers time and they will think of something as they did when they gave Ann Sheridan the title of "Oomph" girl. You can see the picture now at the Ohio theatre where it is playing under the title of "To Have and Have Not."

A big time is in store for you at the Quilna theatre where two of the funniest movies this side of the cinema city are now featured. "Block Busters" with the Dead End Kids is perhaps one of the most comical pictures they have made so far, if that is possible, and the picture "A Wave, a Wac, and a Marine" is simply out of this world as far as comedy goes.

John Hodiak, new male screen find who made his debut in "Lifeboat" playing opposite Tallulah Bankhead, is currently featured in the picture "Marriage Is a Private Affair" and his co-star is none other than Lana Turner herself. Sharing the billing at the State theatre is "Falcon in Hollywood" with Tom Conway.

We've all heard of "Pistol Packin' Mama" now something new has been added, in fact, it's a bigger gun. At the Lyric theatre we find the movie "Machine Gun Mama," one of the most unusual films to come from Hollywood. It is a unique combination of romance, comedy, and music laid against a background of Mexican carnival life.

Holding the starring roles are El Brendel, Swedish dialect comedian making his return to feature-length motion pictures; and Wallace Ford, equally at home in comedy or dramatic roles. Also in the cast are Jack LaRue, as one of the villains, Luis Alberni, who teams with El Brendel for many laughs; Ariel Heath, Julian Rivero, Eumenio Blanco and Anthony Ward.

About 1,500 varieties of plums have been described in horticultural literature in America.

JAPANESE NAVY CHIEF RETIRES

(By The Associated Press)

Adm. Shigetaro Shimada, Japanese navy minister at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack, has retired "at his own request," a Domei Agency radio broadcast said today.

As recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, the dispatch said the 61-year-old admiral had been placed on the reserve list.

Shimada was a member of the Japanese supreme war council.

As navy minister and chief of staff he was responsible for the Japanese navy's resistance to the American Saipan invasion last June. The Japanese lost 30 ships and 757 naval aircraft in the futile action.

67 PERCENT OF SALES STAMPS ARE REDEEMED

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23 (INS)—Sixty-seven per cent of all sales tax stamps sold by the state treasurer were turned in for redemption in 1944. State Tax Commissioner C. Emory Glander announced today.

Glander said the amount returned to this year's 50,223 applicants totaled $1,245,849, representing a tax collection of $41,529,664 on taxable sales of $1,384,322,144.

Under the sales tax law charitable organizations, churches and other groups may collect the sales tax receipts which are redeemable at three per cent of their face value, Glander pointed out.

In comparison, 60 per cent of the stamps sold by the state treasurer in 1943 were turned in by 51,538 applicants. They received a total of $1,118,193.

Also there were fewer applicants in 1944. Glander said, a larger amount of money was involved. The average return per applicant in 1944 was $24.80 as compared with $21.56 in 1943.

"Inner Sanctum" Brings Screen Star Lee Bowman To Radio

Lee Bowman, Hollywood screen star, is heard over CBS as guest zhou in the mystery thriller "Death Is An Artist" when Your Host Raymond opens the "Inner Sanctum" creaking door Tuesday, at 8 p. m. Blood in the snow, four beheaded cats, and the shattered fragments of a sculptured head are the gruesome keys to the identity of a ragged old man who expertly slits his own throat from ear to ear.

A clever impersonator, plus the practical joking of host Roy Rogers, causes no end of confusion during party time at Roy's ranch when the King of the Cowboys airs his Western "Roy Rogers Show" over Mutual Tuesday at 8 p. m.

"Red Wine," L. G. Blochman's psychological study of three murderer suspects stalked by a detective in the Amazon jungle, is the "Mystery Theatre" offering for Tuesday at 8 p. m., to be heard over WEAF.
