Role Of "Ministry Of Fear"

Ray Milland is back in another hit picture and plays the role of a man hunted by the police and sought by a desperate band of murderers who will stop at nothing. In the movie "Ministry of Fear" opening Thursday at the State theatre Milland plays the starring role. Sharing the billing will be "The Singing Sheriff" starring Bob Crosby and his

"Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," now playing at the Ohio theatre, has a story behind it which is hot enough to set the cameras on fire. When the Yanks bombed the Nips' favorite city. Tokyo, then the fire did start shooting out of their eves but it did no good.

Roy Rogers can currently be seen in "San Fernando Valley" now at the Quilna theatre. "Brazil" starring Tito Guizar and Virginia Bruce is the co-feature.

You probably haven't heard of this fellow since you were a youngster reading fairy tales but he has come back in real life at the Sigma theatre. "Bluebeard" now playing at the Sigma theatre stars John Carradine and Jean Parker.

Did you ever see a caterpillar If you haven't then half your life has been wasted. Now you can see one in the picture "Once Upon a Time" now at the Lyric theatre.
