"in order that hope and happi-ness may be assured and increased for those among us who are crip-pled and handicapped, I urge the fullest possible participation in the 12th annual Easter sale of seals." Proceeds from the seal sale in Dane county last year were divided between the state associa-tion for the disabled's Camp Wawbeek at Wisconsin Dells, and the county unit's Camp Ada Lorenz on Lake Mendota. Some of the proceeds were also used for ap-pliances and other services for crippled children and adults. Sugar Increase Seen in Luzon Victory

WASHINGTON-(U.P) --- Victory in the Philippines may be sweeter than you think.

A government sugar expert says that as much as 200,000 to 300,000 tons of sugar might be shipped from liberated areas of the islands to the U. S. before the year is out. This country obtained about 900,-000 tons of sugar annually from the islands before the war. The entire question of resuming imports from the Philippines, it was said, is complicated by the fact that the Japanese dismantled some sugar mills, converted others, and diverted some of the cane fields to other uses. Until the extent these conditions is determined, it will be impossible to tell accurately how much sugar can be expected for outside use,
