

"She Gets Her Man" Carries Comedy With Drama Touch

Maybe this isn't leap year but the women still seem to be getting their men. This can well be seen in the picture "She Gets Her Man" opening Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

Comedy as you have never seen before is distributed thruout the picture with a touch of drama here and there. Sharing the billing will be an English picture brought over to the United States for a trial. It's a good picture and well-worth your seeing. The name of it is "Forty-eight Hours."

In a more beautiful setting than any of her other pictures, Deanna Durbin stars in "Can't Help Singing" currently showing at the Ohio theatre. Her leading man is Robert Paige who plays the role of a dashing young westerner who literally sweeps her off her feet.

Ann Miller has plenty of stuff in the picture "Eddie Was a Lady" now playing at the Quilna theatre. She portrays the part of a college girl who is very much interested in the theatrical way of life and sets out to gain stardom by starting in burlesque.

"Kismet" now can be seen at the State theatre where it is sharing the billing with "San Diego I Love You." The latter picture is a comedy with Jon Hall, Louise Albritton and Edward Everett Horton. The story revolves around an invention which is really no good at all but everyone in the family thinks it is. When the task of selling it finally comes to the front, Miss Albritton does the selling.

"Paris After Dark," a dramatic love story having for its background the deep-rooted resistance of the French working class against the tyrannical Nazi rule, and featuring George Sanders, Philip Dorn and Brenda Marshall and now playing at the Lyric theatre.

FATE KNOCKING
Beethoven's Fifth Symphony begins with the "V" for victory symbol, three short notes and one long one. The composer called it "Fate knocking at the door."

A hot peppery pea soup may be made with the addition of garlic and dried chili pepper or seasoned with chopped onion and chili powder.
