gentleman detective's secretary and best girl friend, accepts Ellery's invitation to spend a weekend at the ski lodge.

The U. S. Army during World War II has developed the infrared photographic technique to the point where a plane 5,000 feet in the air, by means of an infra-red camera, can spot a gun emplacement which had been so skillfully camouflaged that it could not be seen from five feet away by the naked eye. "David Harding — Counterspy"—played by Don Mc-Laughlin—upsets a Nazi plot to sabotage one of the U.S. Army's infra-red laboratories in "The Case of the Poisoned Beer" on Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m., over Station WJZ.

... or how to be hep in Puerto Rico

Trust your American soldier to know his way around. In Puerto Rico, as in Punxsutawney or Pasadena, Coca-Cola is a friend-maker he can count on. To natives and to his buddies alike, Have a Coke says How ya doin', pal. It's a simple gesture of friendly courtesy that's easy to understand. Yes, Coca-Cola is truly an American symbol of a refreshing way to make friends.
