

Dick Haymes Sings In Lyric Film, "Four Jills In A Jeep"

Hold on to your heart! Hang on to your funnybone! "Four Jills in a Jeep" starring Dick Haymes starts on the screen of the Lyric theatre Monday.

The star-studded hit is based on the adventures, romantic and otherwise, of Kay Francis, Carole Landis, Martha Raye and Mitzi Mayfair and the things encountered when they took their show to our fighting men in England and in the foxholes of North Africa.

As a tribute to those men of our armed service who have taken it upon themselves to be the shock troops, to those men who are no more than clay pigeons as they drop from the sky—to the men of the parachute battalions, a picture has been dedicated. The picture is "Objective, Burma" starring Errol Flynn and currently playing at the Ohio theatre.

"The Keys of the Kingdom"—a magnificent film portrayal of A. J. Cronin's book—has a cast equally as excellent. Gregory Peck, who has been lauded by screen critics all over the nation, lives up to every expectation you may have. Now showing at the Quilna theatre.

For all sleuths who believe they have heard of the perfect crime yet have never believed it to be committed, then they'll want to see the picture "The House of Frankenstein" now showing at the Sigma theatre. In it you will find that so-called "perfect crime."

Alan Ladd expected to return to the gangster roles after his medical discharge from service. Instead he was put into an altogether different kind of role—that of a doctor. Ladd can now be seen at the State theatre in "And Now Tomorrow" featuring Loretta Young.

QUOTA MISSED
